PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

This past Monday, we had our retreat for our pastoral staff of Holy Family. In the retreat we did some reflection on the pandemic and how it has affected us personally and in ministry here at Holy Family. What have we done well? What can we do better? We are here to serve you, and we want to ensure that we maintain our connection with all of our parishioners and ministries. It's a gargantuan task, but we are giving it our best shot.

Why is this important? Well ... think about it. Is there anything more important than our relationship with our Savior and being the person we are created to be, striving for excellence and charity and humility and purity and greater love for all of creation? Is there anything more important than doing the best that we can to please God, serve God and gain entry to heaven some day when the Lord calls us home?

Our mission to serve and to help one another in our personal relationships with God. He is love. He loves. And he cares for each one of us despite our sins and our brokenness. His healing power is readily available, but we have to do our part as well. We want to help us all on this incredible journey of life on the way to our heavenly home.

It is very easy in our crazily busy world to lose sight of the fact that we are just passing through. Our stay here is only temporary. Our ultimate goal is heaven and that is for eternity. We have a very merciful God, but what if we don't achieve our goal?

Most of us grapple with the very enticing material and sensual world. We get distracted. We enjoy the good things in life. So, what must we do to attain eternal life? How do we get the fulfillment we all so earnestly long for? Since we are made in the image of God, we can only find fulfillment in God Himself. If we read any of the saints, we are going to find this common thread in their writings: "Our hearts are restless till they rest in Thee" per St. Augustine.

In September, we are going to be working hard to reinvigorate our ministries virtually and help one another recharge as we have an exciting (albeit different) parish year ahead.

God bless us all -

Fr. Jim Bevacqua, Pastor

PARISH NEWS

HOLY FAMILY MISSION STATEMENT

As disciples of Christ, Holy Family Parish is committed to being a more caring, united Catholic community of faith that welcomes all ages, cultures, and walks of life and strives to build the Kingdom of God.

PRAY FOR....The Recovery of:

Juanita David, Victoria Mariano, Mercy Allan, Lorinel Ugale and Matthew Tribble

Those who have died before us and their families...

Fr. Rayappareddy Allam, Raul Reyes, Joselito Altamirano, Carl Handelman

May the souls of all faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Get to know your child's online activities

More and more children will be relying on the internet to continue their education this year. For parents who have already instilled strict screen time guidelines, having children online for school can be cause for concern. Talk to your children about appropriate online behavior, how to know what sites they should and should not visit, what to do if they find themselves on an inappropriate site or in an exchange that makes them feel uncomfortable, as well as how they should handle themselves on social media and other online correspondence. Your child's teachers will likely have detailed plans for how to handle any online schooling. Talk to them about what apps or websites your child will need, and their plans for protecting children from cyber bullying, inappropriate contact, and other online dangers. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

HOLY FAMILY HIGH SCHOOL SWEATER MASS

OUR NEW ASSOCIATE PASTOR BEGINNING SEPTEMBER 1

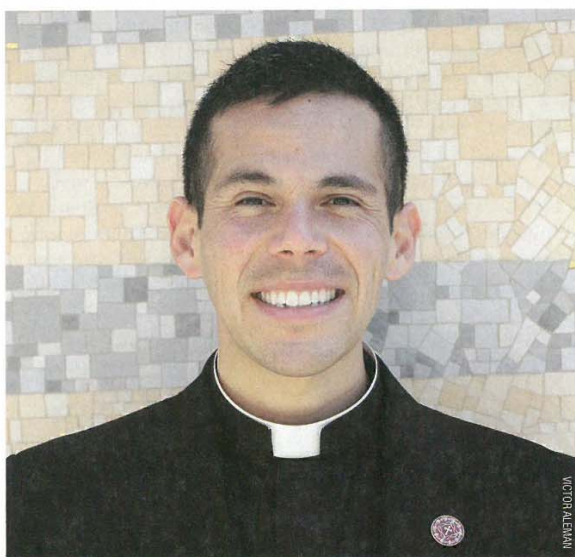

Michael Mesa

Age: 31

Hometown: Pomona/Diamond Bar

Home parish: St. Denis Church, Diamond Bar

First parish assignment: Holy Family Church, Glendale

"Doctors have crazy hours. I think that kind of prepared me for the sacrifice involved in the life of a priest."

Michael Mesa grew up in the Pomona/Diamond Bar area and was raised Catholic, but admittedly was the kind of Catholic who sort of took his faith for granted; the kind who attended Mass every Sunday but did so half asleep.

"We went to the 7:30 a.m. Mass," he said. "So, I didn't really pay attention that much."

Most of his energy was focused on becoming a doctor, a focus that landed him at USC where he majored in biology. It was after graduation, while working in a research lab at USC, that his life changed as he, in his words, "came to God through science."

Employing his training in biology, he began to ponder life's big questions: What is consciousness and what is the purpose of life? Yeah. Big.

"You start to get into the physics of what the universe is made out of and then eventually you hit philosophy where, you know, I had to decide does God exist or not," he said.

"And I kind of reached the conclusion, OK, he does exist, so what does that mean for my life?

"I think that initial call to find God through my intellect kind of led me to then look at the faith that was right in front of me."

Fittingly, his search led him to a book, well, the book. He began reading the Bible, from cover to cover, on Jan. 1, 2011. From the beginning, from the first pages of Genesis, he said, "The word of God stirred up something in my heart. There was this truth and beauty reflected in all these questions I had been thinking about and it kind of started me on this journey."

Around the same time, he was led back to his home parish of St. Denis Church in Diamond Bar, where he was given a book on rediscovering one's Catholicism. He read it, loved it, and soon found himself back at Mass, fully awake.

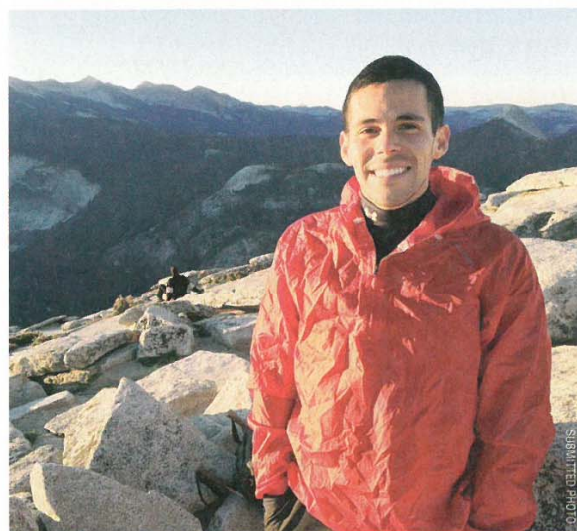

"I noticed in the Mass that there was this joy, this hope that was, you know, in everyone," he said.

And it's that hope and joy he hopes to bring to his new parish, Holy Family Church in Glendale. He said he is "honored and humbled" to be going to a parish in possession of more than 100 years of history, a stunning church and a personal connection to St. Frances Cabrini. He believes the journey that delivered him to Glendale prepared him well.

"Doctors have crazy hours. I think that kind of prepared me for the sacrifice involved in the life of a priest," he said. "I didn't really feel it was a sacrifice, just the next step in following God; kind of an adventure."

It's an adventure he's eager to share with others, even in these historically uncertain times, even when some may question God's role in their lives or God's very existence. He believes he can offer some comfort and perhaps a few answers.

After all, he's done the research. ♦

ADORATION CHAPEL

A GROWING CHURCH SERVING A GROWING COMMUNITY.

OUR DESIRE: TO RENOVATE OUR ADORATION CHAPEL

Having 24/7 access to Jesus in our Perpetual Adoration chapel is an incredible privilege. It's our individual and collective duty to worship, guard, accompany and adore Him, as He sits before us in His exposed and vulnerable state. Day and night for the past 12 years, our Msgr. Lirette Adoration Perpetual Adoration Chapel at Holy Family has been open to parishioners and visitors to spend time with our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

As we continue to see the growth of our community, we also recognize the need to increase the space in which we gather and the importance of the safety of all who come to pray and worship at Holy Family. Through your generosity, this year, we hope to make that happen.

Conozca las actividades en línea de sus hijos

Cada vez más niños dependerán de la Internet para continuar su educación este año. Para los padres de familia que ya han inculcado pautas estrictas de tiempo frente a la pantalla, tener hijos en línea para la escuela puede ser un motivo de preocupación. Platique con sus hijos sobre el comportamiento apropiado en línea, cómo saber qué sitios deben o no deben visitar, qué hacer si se encuentran en un sitio inapropiado o en un intercambio que los haga sentir incómodos, y cómo deben manejarse ellos mismos en las redes sociales y en otra correspondencia en línea. Es probable que los maestros de su hijo/a tengan planes detallados sobre cómo manejar cualquier educación en línea. Hable con ellos sobre qué aplicaciones o sitios web necesitarán y sus planes para proteger a los niños del acoso cibernético, el contacto inapropiado y otros peligros en línea. Para obtener más información, visite <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

CONFIANZA

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Las llaves son de gran importancia para quienes las llevan. Representan la confianza y la autoridad del dueño cuando son entregadas a otra persona. Quizás demos la llave de nuestra casa a un amigo de confianza para que la cuide en nuestra ausencia. Quizás damos las llaves a alguien responsable del mantenimiento u obras de un edificio en particular. Las llaves de vehículos se dan a personas que demuestran ser conductores responsables. Las lecturas de hoy se enfocan en este tipo de confianza, la confianza que confiere autoridad y responsabilidad. En la Primera Lectura, el símbolo específico es una llave, pero en la Segunda Lectura y en el Evangelio se habla de confianza y liderazgo ya que se refiere a la Iglesia terrena que Jesús estableció.

Vigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 23 de agosto de 2020

“Todo lo que ates en la tierra quedará atado en el cielo, y todo lo que desates en la tierra quedará desatado en el cielo”.

— Mateo 16:19

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Pondré en sus manos la llave de la Casa de David (Isaías 22:19-23).

Salmo — Señor, tu amor perdura eternamente; obra tuya soy, no me abandones (Salmo 138 [137]).

Segunda lectura — Los designios de Dios son impenetrables, no se pueden comprender sus caminos (Romanos 11:33-36).

Evangelio — Tú eres el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios vivo (Mateo 16:13-20).
