ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

Saint Alexis of Rome is listed in the traditional Roman Calendar for July 17. He was born in Rome in the late 300s as the only son of wealthy senator and his wife. Alexis was raised in a Catholic home, since the Catholic faith had been legalized in the year 313, and his parents were known for their care of the poor. They made an agreement with another wealthy family for Alexis to marry their daughter, but Alexis wanted to remain single to serve Christ. To honor the wishes of his parents, he married, but on his wedding night he explained to his bride that Christ was calling him to live a life of poverty and chastity. She gave him permission to follow this calling and he fled to Edessa in far-away Syria so that no one would recognize him. There he lived as a beggar on the streets, sharing his food with other beggars, spending many hours praying in the church each day, and teaching prayers and catechism lessons to children. His parents sent servants to look all over the Roman Empire for their son, but they did not recognize him as a beggar. One day in church, a miraculous image of the Blessed Virgin Mary spoke aloud and recognized him as the "Man of God" who had fled from Rome. Alexis could no longer remain in Syria and returned to Rome. His appearance was so changed that when Alexis returned to his home, his parents did not recognize him, but were accustomed to care for beggars and gave him food and shelter. For seventeen years, Alexis lived as a beggar in a small space under the stairs of his family home, continuing to spend hours in church each day and teaching prayers and catechism lessons to children. When Alexis died, his mother found a note hidden in his clothing, revealing his identity as their long-lost son and how his love for Christ led him to live this life of penance from the day of his wedding. His mother cried out, "O my son! Too late have I known you!"

The Letter to the Hebrews (13:2) reminds us, "Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." The Scriptures this Sunday remind us of the importance of hospitality and the ways in which God blesses those who open their hearts and their homes as an expression of love, welcoming others as Christ in their midst.

Jesus is with us, humble and poor, disguised under the appearance of bread in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. How many times have we forgotten or perhaps ignored the consolation, the beauty, and the spiritual riches that Jesus offers us in his Eucharistic presence? Like the mother of Saint Alexis, we cry out, "O my Jesus, my life, my love! Too late have I known you!" But we still have time now to spend with Jesus, to recognize him hidden but truly here with us. The US Bishops have announced a three-year revival of devotion to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. Archbishop Gomez is organizing a Eucharistic Congress on August 13 at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, a day of prayer and presentations along with Mass and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Admission is free. Visit: lacatholics.org/eucharist for more information and to register.

Thank you all for your patience with our temporary parking situation. The current part of the lot that is blocked off should be back to normal by the end of this month.

With gratitude,

Fr. Anthony Garcias, Administrator

Queridos feligreses,

San Alexis de Roma es recordado en el Calendario Romano tradicional para el 17 de julio. Nació en Roma a finales de los años 300 como hijo único de un senador adinerado y su esposa. Alexis creció en una familia católica, ya que la fe católica había sido legalizada en el año 313, y sus padres eran conocidos por su cuidado de los pobres. Hicieron un acuerdo con otra familia adinerada para que Alexis se casara con su hija, pero Alexis quería permanecer soltero para servir a Cristo. Para honrar los deseos de sus padres, se casó, pero en su noche de bodas le explicó a su novia que Cristo lo llamó a vivir una vida de pobreza y castidad. Ella le dio permiso para seguir este llamado y él huyó a Edesa en la lejana Siria para que nadie lo reconociera. Allí vivió como un mendigo en las calles, compartiendo su comida con otros mendigos, pasando muchas horas orando en la iglesia todos los días y enseñando oraciones y el catecismo a los niños. Sus padres enviaron sirvientes a buscar a su hijo por todo el Imperio Romano, pero no lo reconocieron como un mendigo. Un día en la iglesia, una imagen milagrosa de la Santísima Virgen María habló en voz alta y lo reconoció como el “Hombre de Dios” que había huido de Roma. Alexis ya no pudo permanecer en Siria y regresó a Roma. Su apariencia estaba tan cambiada que cuando Alexis regresó a su casa, sus padres no lo reconocieron, pero estaban acostumbrados a cuidar a los mendigos y le dieron comida y cobijo. Durante diecisiete años, Alexis vivió como mendigo en un pequeño espacio debajo de las escaleras de la casa de su familia, pasando horas en la iglesia todos los días y enseñando oraciones y el catecismo a los niños. Cuando Alexis murió, su madre encontró una nota escondida en su ropa, que revelaba su identidad como hijo perdido hace mucho tiempo y cómo su amor por Cristo lo llevó a vivir esta vida de penitencia desde el día de su boda. Su madre gritó: “¡Oh, hijo mío! ¡Demasiado tarde te he conocido!”

La Carta a los Hebreos (13:2) nos recuerda: “No se olviden de practicar la hospitalidad, ya que gracias a ella, algunos, sin saberlo, hospedaron a los ángeles”. Las Escrituras de este domingo nos recuerdan la importancia de la hospitalidad y las formas en que Dios bendice a quienes abren su corazón y su hogar como expresión de amor, acogiendo a los demás como Cristo en medio de ellos.

Jesús está con nosotros, humilde y pobre, disfrazado bajo la apariencia de pan en el Sacramento de la Sagrada Eucaristía. ¿Cuántas veces hemos olvidado o quizás ignorado el consuelo, la belleza y la riqueza espiritual que Jesús nos ofrece en su presencia eucarística? Como la madre de San Alexis, gritamos: “¡Oh, Jesús mío, vida mía, amor mío! ¡Demasiado tarde te he conocido!” Pero aún tenemos tiempo ahora para estar con Jesús, para reconocerlo escondido, pero verdaderamente aquí con nosotros. Los obispos de los Estados Unidos han anunciado un avivamiento de tres años de devoción a Jesús en la Sagrada Eucaristía. El Arzobispo Gómez está organizando un Congreso Eucarístico el 13 de agosto en la Catedral de Nuestra Señora de los Ángeles, un día de oración y presentaciones junto con la Santa Misa y Adoración del Santísimo Sacramento. La entrada es gratuita. Visite: lacatholics.org/eucharist para obtener más información y inscribirse.

Gracias a todos por su paciencia con nuestra situación de estacionamiento en este momento. La parte del estacionamiento que ahora está bloqueada debería volver a la normalidad a finales de este mes.
