Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to his disciples: "I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:20-22

The scribes and Pharisees were masters of the Old Law. Now that the Messiah had arrived, they were unwilling to go deeper and move beyond the Old Testament teachings that they often misrepresented. They preferred a black-and-white approach to morality that had been with them for centuries and did not want to change when presented with Jesus' new and higher calling.

Today's Gospel continues Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, which began with the Beatitudes. In today's portion of Jesus' sermon, we are taught about anger, adultery and oaths. In every case, Jesus refers to the Law as it was taught in the Old Testament but then elevates it to an entirely new level. The line quoted above makes it clear that the only way to accept these new teachings of Jesus was to surpass the "righteousness" of the scribes and Pharisees. And the dire result of not surpassing their righteousness was the loss of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Jesus begins by recalling the Old Testament commandment, "You shall not kill." But then He takes that commandment further by saying that "whoever is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment." Of course, killing remains a grave sin. But now Jesus explains that the interior attitude of anger, even if not acted upon, is a sin. He goes on to teach a similar lesson about adultery and swearing oaths.

It is helpful to understand these new teachings in the context of the approach that the scribes and Pharisees took in regard to the Old Testament. About that, Jesus says, "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill." Thus, the primary problem with the scribes and Pharisees is not that they failed to teach the Old Testament Law properly. The primary problem is that now that the Messiah has arrived and has ushered in a new time of fulfillment and righteousness, they would not go deeper and would not embrace the fulfillment of the Law of God. They are not willing to grow in holiness and embrace the fulfillment of all that had been taught before.

Reflect, today, upon the calling given to you by our Lord's new and glorious teachings. If you are to truly embrace the Gospel of our Lord and live in His New Law of grace, then you must be willing to go deep, become truly radical in your faith, and allow God to transform every part of your life. The New Law is one of the fullness of love, mercy, surrender, zeal, conversion and transformation. Commit yourself to surpassing the old and limited righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, and God will do glorious things in your life.

Our Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism.

We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people.

Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence.

Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

St. Alphonsus Liguori's
Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

REFLECTIONS FOR NEXT WEEK'S READINGS - FEBRUARY 19, 2023 – Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE FIRST READING LEVITICUS 19:1-2, 17-18

*You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
I am the Lord.*

Lord,
you told us
we should be holy
and love our neighbors as ourselves.
No half-measures in our loving.
No play-acting.
Love all our
neighbors as ourselves.
Please, make us holy as your heavenly Father is holy.

THE SECOND READING 1 CORINTHIANS 3:16-23

Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

Holy Spirit,
come dwell in us.
Make us temples of God,
so much that we
become holy.
Take our prayers and weave them
into your own.
Inform our every choice, every struggle.
We wait for your Holy Breath.
Open us to you, we ask.

THE GOSPEL MATTHEW 5:38-48

If anyone wants to go to law with you over tunic, hand over your cloak as well.

Who can turn
the other cheek,
give away their coat,
go two miles instead of one,
love enemies and pray for all those who persecute them?
Not us.
Not without you, Lord.
As you did from your cross,
let us wage love, not war.
Help us go way beyond nonviolence.
Give us generosity of spirit.
We want to love
as you do.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ:

February is Black History Month, an annual celebration of achievements by African Americans and a time for recognizing their central role in U.S. history, also known as African American History Month. President Gerald Ford officially recognized Black History Month in 1976, calling upon the public to “seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of Black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.” Today, Black History Month is a time to honor the contributions and legacy of African Americans across U.S. history and society—from activists and civil rights pioneers such as Harriet Tubman, Sojourner Truth, Marcus Garvey, Martin Luther King Jr., Malcolm X and Rosa Parks to leaders in industry, politics, science, culture and more.

Since 1976, every American president has designated February as Black History Month and endorsed a specific theme.

The National Black History Month 2023 theme, “Black Resistance,” explores how “African Americans have resisted historic and ongoing oppression, in all forms, especially the racial terrorism of lynching, racial pogroms and police killings,” since the nation's earliest days.

The challenge is there for all us to raise our awareness about systemic racism in our lives and in our society. Black History Month as well as books on racism plus humble prayer will move us from awareness to action for peace and justice.

St. Mary of the Angels and St. Francis of Assisi, pray for us,

Friar Joe Hund, OFM
