14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." Matthew 10:37-39

Clearly, this saying is a play on words that is meant to make you pause and think. It's almost like a holy and sacred riddle, spoken by Jesus to get your attention and to communicate a very deep and foundational truth about how you are to live. Essentially, this saying teaches that those who live in a selfish, self-centered way do not accomplish their goal. The goal of those who are selfish is to elevate themselves with the thinking that this is what is best for them. But Jesus clearly points out that when you live selfishly, seeking to put yourself above others, you lose what is most important in life. You lose your very soul. On the contrary, if you live selflessly, putting others before you, it is in this act that you actually find your true purpose in life and fulfill yourself on the deepest level.

Think, for example, of Jesus. He is God, the Second Person of the Most Holy Trinity, existing for eternity in perfect union with the Father and the Holy Spirit. His soul radiates pure love. And for that reason, He chose to become human, suffer greatly and be killed. Was that fulfilling to our Lord? Most certainly. Why? Because His sacrifice went to the heart of Who He is. He is Love itself. And love is always self-giving. It is always fulfilling. It always seeks the good of the other. Love fulfills the lover when it is pure, holy, selfless and total. Jesus' sacrificial death on the Cross not only redeemed us, but it also manifested the Son of God's own perfect fulfillment and satisfaction in His human nature because His death was an act of pure love.

Sin confuses us. Selfishness especially clouds our thinking. As a result, it becomes difficult to clearly see that the way to fulfillment in life is by the complete and unwavering sacrifice of our lives given to others, in imitation of and in union with Jesus' perfect sacrifice. The moment that sin leads us to think first about ourselves, we begin to become blind to who we are and what makes us truly fulfilled.

Our Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism.

We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people.

Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence.

Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You; never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

REFLECTIONS FOR NEXT WEEK'S READINGS - JULY 16, 2023 – 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE FIRST READING

ISAIAH 55:10-11

My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I send it.

Lord of all, tend to our earth.
Give it clean water
and seed for bread
for all your hungry children.

Tend to our souls.
Render them
fertile and fruitful.

And
please send us out
to plant your Word
within the entire world.

THE SECOND READING

ROMANS 8:18-23

...for creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God.

Lord,
all creation
is groaning,
laboring within itself,
eagerly seeking to be set free from its pollution and corruption, and to grow in the wonders you give it, through your Spirit.

Oh,
let us see into
the deep soul of this,
our deeply wounded world.
Please let us help
in saving it.

THE GOSPEL

MATTHEW 13:1-23 or 13:31-9

But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears because they hear.

Blest be our eyes,
because they see your splendor:
in the sunlight at play in summer trees; in the faces of loved ones;
in the beauty of images,
of Cezanne and friends.

And blessed be our ears
which certainly hear your glory
in the sounds of geese high overhead;
in baby's laugh; in a Puccini opera,
in the hello of a friend.

And, let us always listen
for the cries of your poor.

And, please make our lives rich,
so our eyes and ears always wait
to receive your ever-tender love.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

Mother Mary Lange came closer to sainthood on June 22, when Pope Francis declared her Venerable, the second of four steps in the process. Not much is known of Elizabeth Clarisse Lange's early life; she was born sometime in the 1780s, possibly in Cuba, where her family had fled to escape the Haitian Revolution. In the early 1800s, she left Cuba for the United States, and by 1813 she was living in Baltimore, where there were many free African-Americans as well as French-speaking Afro-Caribbeans.

Recognizing the need for education, Elizabeth opened a school in her home. Then she was asked by Reverend James Joubert to open a school for girls. She had been hoping to commit herself to God, so asked Father Joubert whether she should also start a religious congregation. With his support, and the approval of Archbishop James Whitfield, Elizabeth and three other women of color pronounced vows of poverty, chastity and obedience.

This was the beginning of the Oblate Sisters of Providence, the first African-American religious congregation, and Elizabeth, now Sister Mary, became the first ever African-American Superior general. Their primary purpose was the Catholic education of girls, and their first school, Saint Frances Academy, is still in operation in Baltimore. They later expanded to adult education, homes for widows and orphans, and nursing, notably through a cholera epidemic.

Six Black Americans – Servants of God Thea Bowman and Julia Greeley, and Venerable Henriette Delille, Augustus Tolton, Pierre Toussaint and now Mother Lange – are on the path to sainthood, through a four-stage process including Servant of God, Venerable, Blessed, and finally Saint.

PRAYER FOR THE CANONIZATION OF MOTHER MARY LANGE

Almighty and Eternal God, you granted Mother Mary Lange extraordinary trust in Your providence. You endowed her with humility, courage, holiness and an extraordinary sense of service to the poor and sick. Mother Lange's love for all enabled her to see Christ in each person, and the pain of prejudice and racial hatred never blurred that vision. Deign to raise her to the highest honors of the altar in order that, through her intercession, more souls may come to a deeper understanding and a more fervent love of You. Amen.

Venerable Mother Mary Lange, Pray for us.

Sr. Judy Zynda, OP
