“That’s Tempting!”

“For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” — Lk. 12:34 Are you fired up? That’s tempting, but... What are we to do in the face of temptation? Do we say, “That’s tempting, but... no thank you!” Or, do we say, “That’s tempting... I know I shouldn’t but, oh well,” and give in to it anyway?

First of all, what is temptation? St. Thomas Aquinas gives us this definition: “Temptation is nothing more than to be put to the test. When a person is tempted, it is his virtue that is tried.” How are we doing in the area of virtue and in the area of resisting temptation? This is part of the spiritual journey. We will struggle with temptation throughout our life as this is the devil’s way of trying to take us away from God. It is a struggle that, by ourselves, we will fail in, but with the grace of God and our cooperation with that grace, we can overcome these attacks!

Temptation in and of itself is not evil. It provides, in fact, an opportunity for us to show the Lord that we love Him more than anything else. “Temptation can serve as a means for our growth in virtue and sanctifying grace.” (In Conversation with God, Francis Fernandez) So, is the question that we should ask ourselves, “Do we love God? And, if so, “How much do we love Him?”

Oftentimes we fail in our efforts to show people we love them. Take for example a husband or wife who truly love each other but fail to show that love by their actions or inactions. What about the son or daughter who love their parents more than anything in the world but continually hurt them by their bad choices or hurtful words. At some point, in the preceding two examples, there has to be a proactive effort that says, “I do love you, and I will put away my selfishness (or whatever it is that keeps you from loving more completely) and show that you mean more than anything in the world to me.”

This is the same thing that we have to do in our relationship with God. We have to focus on His will and what it is we need to do to show Him the depth of our love. Remember, by ourselves we will fail, but by the grace of God we will overcome!

Remembering Those Who Have Gone Before Us

On Saturday, November 3 at 11 am, a Mass will be offered celebrating the lives of St.

Patrick parishioners and family members who have passed away in the year since All Souls Day 2017. Family members will light a candle for each person's life we celebrate. Please call the parish office (452-6021) by October 26 if you would like to add the name of a loved one to be remembered whose funeral was not conducted at St. Patrick. A candle will be provided. This is sponsored by the Helpers in Sorrow (HIS) Ministry here at St. Patrick. All parishioners are encouraged to attend this Mass of Remembrance in support of our parish faith family. There will be a gathering in the parish hall following the Mass.

Prayer Shawls Available

This weekend, October 13 & 14, free, blessed prayer shawls will be available after all Masses. Please pick one up for yourself or a friend, or just to keep on hand. Who needs a prayer shawl, a "holy reminder" of the prayers of friends and family? Those who are hospitalized or at home with illnesses or facing medical treatments, new moms, newly "empty nest" people, college students or grown children away from the area, a tangible expression of your prayers to a friend you haven't seen in a while, someone in a nursing home or assisted living facility, those who have lost a loved one, or anyone facing a serious life event or change.
