3-2-1…

"Lighten Up!"

"For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be." — Lk. 12:34 Are you fired up?

Happy and Blessed Gaudete Sunday!

Traditionally, on the Third Sunday of Advent, rose-colored vestments are worn and the third candle of the Advent wreath is lit, which is also rose colored. This rose color is symbolic of the Christmas joy announced in the first word of the entrance antiphon: "Rejoice," or in Latin, Gaudete. Advent is a time to prepare and rejoice in anticipation of not only our Lord's return in all His glory, but also the celebration of His birth!

The prologue of John's Gospel profoundly announces Jesus as the Light that has come into a world of darkness. This Gospel is proclaimed on Christmas Day in order to shed "light" on how important the birth of Jesus was and is for all the world.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through Him, and without Him nothing came to be. What came to be through Him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it…" — Jn. 1:2-5

Jesus is our light. He radiates His light and presence in the world. His light is goodness. This goodness is sometimes clouded by darkness. We know that Jesus is more powerful than anything or anyone in the whole world! We need to live in the light. We need to be the torches for this light. Jesus gives Himself to us, not just in thought, but in reality. We unite with Him in the Scriptures, in the Sacraments, and in our lives of holiness.

During this third week of Advent may we joyfully recommit to preparing our heart, mind, soul, our very lives for Jesus!

May we call on His light to lead us and guide us in the ways of our Faith. Let His light be a real reason to rejoice this upcoming Christmas Season. In essence, we need to just "lighten up!"

St. Patrick… pray for us! — Fr. Dudzinski

Catholics Returning Home

As we approach the season of Christmas, we anticipate having many visitors and guests at our Masses on Christmas and New Year. Certainly some of these guests will be fallen-away Catholics who could use a warm welcome and an invitation to return home to the Catholic Church. Perhaps some of these people are members of your own family or circle of friends. Deacon Chuck Springer will lead a team in a Catholics Returning Home gathering in January. Stay tuned for ways to invite fallen-away Catholics to return to Church, or call the parish office (452-6021) for more information.

Thank you for being a blessing!

Your generosity has been a blessing to St. Patrick Church throughout this past year. Your continued support allows us to help our church family and spread God's Word throughout the world. As you begin year-end tax planning, take advantage of the charitable tax deduction for gifts made before December 31 and consider the variety of gift options available to you. Your gift to our parish can make a great difference to us and help you as well. Visit our parish website at www.stpatrick-kokomo.org if you'd like to learn more about online donations to our parish, or contact Bev Stout, Operations Manager, at beverlys@stpatrick-kokomo.org or 452-6021.

"As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God." – 1 Peter 4:10-11

Sponsor of the Week

This week's sponsor of the week is True Realty. To view their full advertisement, see the back page of the bulletin. The advertisements that appear in this bulletin completely defray all publishing costs which the church would otherwise incur. Please patronize the sponsors on the back of this bulletin and thank them for their kind generosity.

Mass In Slow Motion

Everyone is welcome to attend Mass In Slow Motion on Tuesday, December 18 at 6:30 pm in the church. Fr. Dudzinski will explain in detail the parts of the Mass. This is a great opportunity to learn why we do some of the things we do at Mass. Feel free to ask questions. All are welcome and are encouraged to invite others as well!

Advent Penance Service

St. Joan of Arc Penance Service is Thursday, December 20 at 7 pm. Please take advantage of this opportunity for Confession.

RCIA — Anyone interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the faith is encouraged and welcome to attend these classes. All classes begin at 6:30 pm in the parish hall unless otherwise noted!

- December 18 — Mass in Slow Motion (meet in Church)
- December 25 — No Class
- January 1 — No Class
- January 8 — The Seven Sacraments; Sacramentals

Is God calling YOU to spend an hour with HIM??

There is no time like now to answer that call. Several new hours have recently become vacant in Our Lady of the Most Blessed Sacrament Perpetual Adoration Chapel. Maybe you and a friend would like to share an hour, or you could share an hour with your family. We all know that our world, our families, the Church are all in need of much prayer. There is no better place than our very own adoration chapel in the presence of our Lord. He waits for you. Please call Barb Miller 860-4402.
