The Baptism of the Lord

Jesus went to the Jordan River to be baptized, just like other people who wanted to get clean and follow God. John the Baptist was surprised because Jesus did not have any sins, but Jesus said it was important to do everything God asks, so he wanted to be baptized too. After Jesus was baptized, the sky opened up and the Holy Spirit, like a dove, landed on Him. God's voice came from heaven and said 'this is my Son! I love Him very much and am so happy with Him!' Jesus is truly God's Son and came to help people. Baptism is a way for us to show we love Jesus and want to follow Him.
