Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Peter, Andrew, James and John were fishermen who went fishing every day so that they could sell the fish. They felt they were doing something very important. Then Jesus asked them to leave their fishing jobs and follow him instead. He promised that if they did so, they would bring home more than fish: they would bring people home to God. Those fishermen really liked what Jesus said, and they followed him. When we learn how much Jesus loves us, we want to be close to him.
