The Ascension of the Lord — Thursday, May 10, 2018

“The mystery of the Ascension has been interpreted to mean that Christ’s human nature is taken up into the realm and mystery of the divine Trinity.

In the divinization of Christ’s human nature is the hope for the glorification and divinization of our own humanity.”

Thus, in the celebration of the Ascension, we catch a glimpse of what we hope someday to be: caught up in the mystery of divine love that is the Trinity.

GOSPEL REFLECTION — JOHN 15 9:817

Today, Jesus gives His new commandment which goes with His new relationship with us. We are to love one another as He loves us. He gives us examples of His love for us. Come and let us open our hearts to this love which he gives to us in the Eucharist today. Then we can show God's unconditional love to those who have not heard of it and those who may doubt that God loves them.

PLEASE PRAY for all our sick parishioners, relatives, friends and their caregivers, and all those listed in

Our Lady's Prayer Chain.

Jim Davis - Nancy Cantrell & Friends - Mike Coughlin - Jim DeForest
 Baby Abigail Farrell - Mary Farrell - Infant Emersyn Grace
 Nicole Hauser - David LaPlaca - Baby Lorelei - Dan Waldron
 Maddie Smith - Elsie Trotter - Mary Yost

PLEASE PRAY for our troops.

On Saturday, May 26th we will dedicate the 4:30 Vigil Mass to First Responders and Military Personnel.

All parishioners are invited to join us for this special Parish

Mass and to submit the names of family members and parishioners who presently serve or have served as first responders or members of our Armed Services. We will collect these names at the rectory office (215-822-0179 or office@stjudechalfont.org). The names of these heroes will be announced at this special Mass and, as a parish community, we will lift them up in prayers of grace, gratitude and the continued protection of our Lord.

Pastor's Column April 29, 2018

My friends in Christ:

SPECIAL MASS FOR OUR MILITARY AND FIRST RESPONDERS

Each Sunday, in the General Intercessions, we offer a petition for our First Responders and for our Military: "For our First Responders who protect our community and for those who serve in our military: May God keep them from harm and return them safely to their families. We pray to the Lord..."

We will celebrate our second annual Mass for Military and First Responders on Saturday, May 26th at the 4:30 Vigil Mass to honor these heroes among us. This Mass will be dedicated to anyone who is a current or former First Responder or Military person.

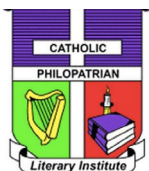

I invite all our parishioners to join us for this special Parish Mass and to submit the names of family members and parishioners who presently serve or have served as first responders or members of our Armed Services. Ellie will be collecting these names at the rectory office (215-822-0179 or office@stjudechalfont.org). Our intention is to announce all their names at this Mass and, as a parish community, lift them up in prayers of grace, gratitude and the continued protection of our Lord. These courageous men and women lay down their lives to protect and defend each of us wherever needed. Please extend an invitation to any current or former First Responder or Military Personnel to attend this special Mass.

My deep gratitude to the teachers, catechists and staff for their dedication in preparing our second graders who received the sacraments of First Reconciliation on February 10th and First Communion on May 5th of this year, 2018:

Sr. Elizabeth Marley, RSM, Lori Rawski, Terry Crowley, Jodie D'Alessandro, Cindy Coleman, Tracy Dufner, Maureen Kilcullen, Maureen Kleinschmidt, Lisa Meiluta,

FIRST COMMUNION – MAY 5, 2018

This weekend is a most blessed and holy weekend for our Second Grade Students. For on Saturday, our Second Grade School and PREP students received their First Holy Communion. In preparation for their special day, I met with the second grade classes. I can tell you personally that these children are well prepared and very excited to receive Jesus their friend, in Holy Communion for the first time. They understand that God, who created them and died for them on the cross so that their sins could be forgiven, and loves them unconditionally, is coming into their heart and soul to live within them. They are also very excited to know that they can receive Jesus any time they come to Mass with their families.

Please join me, as a parish community, in congratulating the following children on their sacred day,
as they receive their First Eucharist.

Memorial Giving Highlights

You've seen the beautiful marble and stone mosaics of our Adoring Angels. We're now having another mosaic image custom-created to go into this frame, currently hanging empty in the back of the church.

Who do you think is being framed? That's the big buzz in the parish! The answer will be revealed in two weeks.

Phase II is almost finished! It will end with the completion of the flooring, as funds allow. Your generous use of the "yellow envelopes" and sponsoring of memorials is making this all possible. Thank you!

Please see renovation updates and our Memorial Gift Brochure on the parish website, www.stjudechalfont.org, under the Renovations tab.
