Then the devil took Jesus up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me."

Hello Everyone,

As we begin Lent, I want to briefly reflect on the three great spiritual practices our Church recommends for us during this season of preparation: Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving.

It should be no surprise that we are encouraged to renew ourselves in prayer during Lent.

The practice of speaking to God, bringing him our needs, thanking him for our gifts, and worshipping Him as our creator is the most fundamental practice we have as Catholics to strengthen and develop our relationship with the Holy Trinity. All of us need to take time each year to recommit ourselves to some act of private daily prayer. When that takes place in our day and the form in which it takes will be different for each of us, but Lent is the perfect season to take stock of our prayer life and pledge to strengthen it.

Fasting, or acts of penance, is an ancient and very powerful way that we can prepare ourselves for Easter. This can take many forms, but the two most common are "giving up something for Lent" and of course abstaining from meat on Fridays. The principle at work here is that we voluntarily give up things which we enjoy in order to reorient ourselves towards Christ. Fasting from something teaches us that Christ is the most important thing that we can have in this life and anything else which might not be bad in and of itself, must be properly prioritized so that we do not allow the things of this world to come between us and our Savior.

Fasting also trains our will so that our appetite does not always get what it wants. In this way, fasting is a powerful antidote for habitual sins, especially sins of the body that we can't seem to shake. By fasting and voluntarily abstaining from things we desire, we grow in self-control and self-mastery. Lent gives us an opportunity each year to engage in this spiritual training so that by Easter we have grown as a result.

Finally, Lent calls us to grow in our practice of almsgiving (acts of charity). There is no better way to appreciate the material gifts that God has blessed us with than to use those gifts to bless others in return. Giving of our treasure, time, and talent to help those less fortunate is at the very foundation of how to interact with the material world. Like prayer and fasting, this season calls us to recommit ourselves in this endeavor.

While Lent is obviously not the only time that we are called to pray, fast, and charitably give, it is a wonderful opportunity each year for us to assess how we are faring in these most basic Christian practices. As human beings, we are not done growing in these three areas until we leave this life for the next. So let us come through Lent 2020 having grown in all three of these great practices. After all, there is no better way to prepare for the celebration of the Resurrection of the Lord!

-Fr. Tim

Parish Life

MINISTRY FOR MATURING ADULTS

A very special faith formation experience is going to take place on Friday, April 3rd, when a group of St. Mark pilgrims will board a motor coach to visit the Shrine of Christ's Passion in St. John, Indiana. A day-long pilgrimage is a wonderful way to grow in your faith and spend time with friends, old and new. Members of the Ministry for Maturing Adults (MMA) Steering Committee (SC) will be at a table in the narthex after all masses March 7th/8th and March 14th/15th to take registrations for this very special pilgrimage. For more information or to register, call Wilma Cross at 317-403-8238 or Carolyn Noone at 317-443-0043.

Several members of the MMA SC met on February 20th at the Parish Center to make calls to our parish's 120 Elders (those age 80 and over). The purpose of these calls is very simple...to connect directly with our Elders, to determine how they are doing, and to see if there is anything MMA can do to support them at this time in their lives. If you are an Elder and have not yet been contacted, please call Steve Helmich at 317-903-9657 (cell/text).

The MMA Book Club, under the leadership of Rita East, is going to make a copy of Matthew Kelly's "Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic" available, at no charge, to every individual/family at St. Mark. A free-will offering will be available. Sign-up for this Book Club opportunity will take place the week-end of April 18th/19th and the books will be distributed the week-end of May 2nd/3rd. This will be an exciting opportunity to have many of us learning together how to be a "dynamic" Catholic.

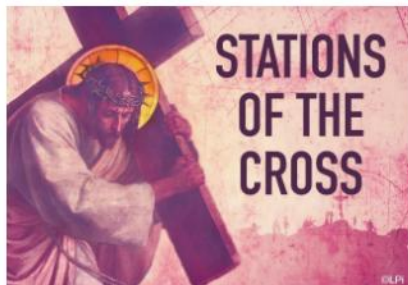

The MMA Steering Committee wants to add members who are interested in helping expand this ministry at St. Mark. If you are interested in getting involved in this leadership team of "doers", please contact Steve Helmich at 317-903-9657 (cell/text) or stevehelmich50@gmail.com.

MMA believes that maturing adults need the Church's care and compassion; an understanding of their real needs as they are now; the necessary help in discerning the call of God today; and encouragement to continue their spiritual pilgrimage.

Scouting News

On February 17th, the national organization of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA) filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy to achieve two key objectives: equitably compensate victims who were harmed during their time in Scouting and continue to carry out Scouting's mission for years to come. The reason for this action is increasing financial pressure on the BSA from litigation involving past abuse in Scouting. The plan is to create a Trust that would provide equitable compensation to these individuals.

It is important to know that Scouting programs will continue with regular unit meetings, activities, and service projects. As we go through this process, we want to make certain that all Scouting parents and volunteers know the following:

- Scouting is safer now than ever before. Approximately 90% of the pending and asserted claims against the BSA relate to abuse that occurred more than 30 years ago. The safety of children in our programs is our absolute top priority and that one instance of abuse is one too many. We are outraged that there have been times when individuals took advantage of our programs to abuse innocent children. Over many years, BSA responded by developing some of the strongest expert-informed youth protection policies found in any youth-serving organization. In addition, Catholic chartered units require all adults to receive Safe and Sacred training and a separate background check. From mandatory youth protection training and background checks for all volunteers and staff to policies that prohibit one-on-one interaction between youth and adults and require that any suspected abuse is reported to law enforcement. Our volunteers take youth protection extremely seriously and do their part to help keep kids safe. You can read more about the BSA's multi-layered safeguards and our efforts to be part of the broader solution to child abuse at www.scouting.org/youth-safety. In fact, this is a resource that you can share with friends and family who are interested in understanding what the BSA is doing to keep kids safe.

- Scouting continues. Scouting programs will continue to serve youth, families, and local communities throughout this process and for many years to come. Parents agree that Scouting values mirror those of our faith and continue to be invaluable to our future leaders.
- Local councils have not filed for bankruptcy. Local councils - which provide programming, financial, facility, and administrative support to Scouting units in their communities - are legally separate, distinct, and financially independent from the national organization.

We know you will likely have questions about these issues and things you will see in the news. We have posted information about our restructuring on a dedicated website, BSArestructuring.org.
