

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

called to honor and give glory to God in the every day circumstances of our lives. We are not to condemn or judge the outsiders in need of Christ's mercy, but accompany them with love and compassion. And, in deep humility, to live speak and act in a manner befitting the great gift of salvation we ourselves have been given. Nourished by God's word and sacrament, we are sent forth to let the light of the Holy Spirit shine forth from the sacred temples of our lives.

Your Brother in Christ,
Deacon Paul

The two main characters in today's Gospel are a Pharisee and a tax collector, both of whom go to the temple to pray. The Pharisees were part of a Jewish renewal movement that believed that Israel should separate itself from all impurity and defilement. Their name literally means "the separated ones." They gave considerable attention to ritual purity, and had developed an entire body of personal rituals and traditions to stand alongside the books of Moses. Pharisees despised tax collectors as sinners for several reasons: they were ritually defiled by contact with the Gentiles, they were branded as traitors by collecting for the occupying Romans, and were sometimes guilty of extortion.

The two men manifest the relative places and status in the accepted culture of the time period. One belongs to the sacred precincts of the temple and is an insider. The other belongs to the secular world and is an outsider. Jesus stuns his listeners with this conclusion: the tax collector, not the Pharisee, left the temple justified. In this light, the social map of the time is being abandoned and the kingdom of God is no longer to be found in the temple. Salvation is being extended to all, even tax collectors and sinners.

The activity of the kingdom of God has moved from the sacred precincts of the temple to the arena of the secular world. In other words, the sacred has moved to everyday life. By virtue of our baptism, we are temples of Holy Spirit. (cf. 1 Corinthians 6:19) We are

MASS SCHEDULE

All Saints Day, a holy day of obligation, will be celebrated on Tuesday, November 1st. Mass times will be at: 6:00 AM, 8:15 AM, 11:00 AM, and 7:00 PM. The 8:15 AM will be an all school mass, and we are encouraging parishioners who would normally attend 8:15 AM to attend the 11:00 AM. We have the awesome problem of the sanctuary being filled to capacity by all 500 students!

All Souls Day will be celebrated at 7:00 PM on Wednesday, November 2nd. This mass is not a holy day of obligation, however it is hosted by the St. Mark Bereavement Ministry in memory of parishioners who have passed away this past year. There will not be confessions, a 5:30 PM mass, or adoration this evening.

Again this year we will build an altar of remembrance for our deceased loved ones, pictures will be collected in the Narthex starting the weekend of October 30th.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Recruiting Leaders for Adoration

If you attend Adoration on Wednesday evenings and would like to be a leader, please call or email Sharon Shockey at 317-784-2690 or Booker_6@comcast.net. We hope to recruit 8 leaders so each will be scheduled once every 2 months. If a priest or deacon is there to lead Benediction, you will be relieved of any duties.

Your responsibilities are: pass out the prayer cards, lead the prayers, return the Blessed Sacrament to the tabernacle, take the monstrance to the sacristy, cover it, and put it in the cabinet. Please collect and return the prayer cards to the sacristy. You will extinguish the candles and turn out the lights. Please close the sacristy door before you leave. If you need help the first time or want to meet for a walk through before you are scheduled, just let Sharon know when you sign up. Thank you for your willingness to participate in Adoration.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Next weekend, October 29/30, is our final St. Vincent de Paul Fifth Sunday Envelope for 2022.

- With 12 weeks still ahead of us, we have already responded to 99 helpline requests from families who live within our parish boundaries!
- Roughly half were requests for help with utility and rent payments or grocery store cards.
- The balance were requests for mattresses, couches, blankets, dining room tables, and all kinds of things like dishes, pots/pans, and lamps.

Our St. Mark SVdP crew may be the ‘face’ (and in many cases muscle) who meet each family and figure out how to help, but without your Fifth Sunday gifts and other generous donations this ministry could not happen. Thank You!

MINISTRY FOR MATURING ADULTS

“Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life... Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap, they gather nothing into barns, yet your Heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not more important than they?” Matthew 6:25-26

The process is of “letting go” is foundational to the eldering years because the very realities of these years—whether we want to or not—ask us to come to grips with where we have been and where we are going.

C.S. Lewis challenges us, “Nothing you have not given away will ever be really yours.”

The Best Is Yet to Be...planning is underway to offer a very powerful workshop for St. Mark Maturing Adults. The Best is Yet to Be: A Time of Reflection for Older Adults is a half-day experience that will help people in their maturing years come together for a time of prayer, reflection, and guided discussion about the realities of growing older. Stay tuned for details!

Do you need help getting your leaves raked this fall?... garden cleaned up?...garage organized? MMA partners with Roncalli students who volunteer on Saturdays to help you and earn service hours. Call coordinator Dan O’Brien at 317-306-6036 to discuss your needs and get on the work schedule.

2022-23 Guide for St. Mark’s Mature Adults...every St. Mark Maturing Adult should have a copy of this informative booklet on their counter. Contact Steve Helmich 317-903-9657 (cell/text) or stevhelmich50@gmail.com to get your copy.

Do you need help setting up your computer? Do you need computer repair? Maybe you just need a bit of tutoring to use your computer more effectively. Contact parishioner and former K of C Grand Knight John Magee to discuss your computer needs at 317-753-4678.

A BURDEN of these years is the temptation to cling to the times and things behind us rather than move to the liberating moments ahead.

A BLESSING of these years is the invitation to go lightfooted into the here and now—because we spend far too much of life preparing for the future rather than enjoying the present.—Sr. Joan Chittister
