Deacon Nick's Corner

Have you read today's Gospel yet? There are a lot of contrasting statements that Jesus is telling His disciples. It seems like He is giving them His final instructions about how they are to go out and witness to the world about Him. It's clear that Jesus is telling them there will be a price to pay for following Him and for teaching people about Him. There will be some sacrifice and some suffering in their journey, that's for sure! Is it any wonder that we face the same things that those first disciples did?

Jesus said that we can't love our fathers or mothers more than we love Him; that we can't love our children more than Him; and that we will have our own crosses to bear when we follow Him. Our salvation is made real in moving out of ourselves in service and love towards others in the name of Jesus. Today's seemingly severe words of Jesus about family are simply an invitation to put our spiritual and our physical lives in order. When we love God first and foremost, only then are we able to love our families and friends. Our love of Him becomes the flowing spring of our love for everyone else and the source of our strength when we minister to the world.

This primacy of love enriches and expands our vision and understanding of our responsibilities of work, community, and society. We don't do these things for ourselves, but we do them out of our love for Him, and this is a powerful witness to those around us! The disciples ended up changing the world because they prioritized their love for Jesus. They weren't "part-time Christians" trying to love their families and friends before their love for the Lord. Instead, "...whoever loses his life for (Jesus') sake will find it..." They loved so much that eleven of them -- and many down through the ages -- ended up dying martyrs' deaths because they taught about Jesus and His death and resurrection, all of which was for mankind's -- yours and mine and everyone's -- salvation!

The Gospel passage is not saying that we should not love our mothers, our fathers, and our children. It's telling us to get our priorities right. Jesus was not a "part-time Savior," so why should we be "part-time Christians"? We should always love the Lord first and foremost, so that we can properly love all others and all that God created.

God Bless,
Deacon Nick Martin

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

This past week, members of the National Eucharistic Congress team had the privilege of an audience with Pope Francis in Rome. The Holy Father expressed his support for the rebirth of the Congress legacy in the United States and the Revival movement as a whole. He affirmed the critical need for Eucharistic Revival, and shared his hope for the future of the Church in the United States

The following is a small excerpt from his address:

“the Eucharist is God’s response to the deepest hunger of the human heart, the hunger for an authentic life, for in the Eucharist Christ himself is truly in our midst, to nourish, console and sustain us on our journey. Sadly nowadays, there are those among the Catholic faithful who believe that the Eucharist is more a symbol than the reality of the Lord’s presence and love. It is more than a symbol; it is the real and loving presence of the Lord. It is my hope, then, that the Eucharistic Congress will inspire Catholics throughout the country to discover anew the sense of wonder and awe at the Lord’s great gift of himself and to spend time with him in the celebration of the Holy Mass and in personal prayer and adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. I believe that we have lost the sense of adoration in our day. We must rediscover the sense of adoration in silence. It is a form of prayer that we have lost. Too few people know what it is.”

Following the address, the Pope blessed the exquisite, Mexican-made, 4-foot monstrance that was made to be used at the Congress in July 2024. Its construction is an homage to Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the National Eucharistic Revival.

MINISTRY FOR MATURING ADULTS

"There is ultimately only one thing that makes human beings deeply and profoundly bitter, and that is to have thrust upon them a life without meaning. There is nothing wrong in searching for happiness. But of more comfort to the soul is something greater than happiness or unhappiness, and that is a life of meaning. Because meaning transfigures all. Once what you are doing has meaning for you, it is irrelevant whether you are happy or unhappy. You are content." Laurens van der Post.

Pope Francis has announced that WORLD DAY FOR GRANDPARENTS AND THE ELDERLY will be celebrated this year on Sunday, July 23rd. Mark your calendar and invite your children and grandchildren if they are close by to St. Mark that day for a celebration and great fun from 11:00-1:00. We will walk across the parking lot to O'RileyBranson for delicious food and drink, a photo booth, face painting for the kids, and a coin toss. You don't want to miss this very special event!

Popular Bible study facilitator Suzanne Conklin has announced she will be offering a new study, The Prophets, beginning September 12th and concluding November 21st. The sessions begin at 12:15 and conclude at 2:00. Contact Suzanne at Hungariangmom@gmail.com for registration information.
