

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For the Son of Man will come with his angels
in his Father's glory,
and then he will repay all according to his conduct.”
- Mt 16:26-27

Deacon Paul's Corner

Labor Day weekend is a good time to be thankful for our God-given right to work for ourselves, for our families, and for the common good. And it provides us with an opportunity to reacquaint ourselves with an important aspect of Catholic social teaching. One of its 7 Key Principles is titled The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers which states:

“The economy must serve people, not the other way around. Work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. If the dignity of work is to be protected, then the basic rights of workers must be respected--the right to productive work, to decent and fair wages, the right to organize..., to private property, and to economic initiative.”

In 1891, Pope Leo XIII wrote the encyclical, Rerum Novarum: Rights and Duties of Capital and Labor. It has been called the Magna Carta of Catholic Social Teaching. It included many foundational teachings of the modern Church such as:

The dignity of the human person: Each person has God's life, law and love deeply imprinted in his very nature.

The common good: The moral and spiritual good that all members of society hold in common. It does not mean what is most materially good some people, but the good that is shared by all.

Subsidiarity: The principle that governments or higher powers should not intervene in matters that can be taken care of or resolved by families or communities or lower powers.

Solidarity: The principle that all members of society have a responsibility to help the other members of their family, community or country with the needs and problems that they cannot remedy alone.

The right of private property: Private property represents the wages and goods that one has rightfully earned, and that one needs private property to provide for the needs of one's family.

Universal destination of goods: The principle that God made the goods of the earth for the use of all and that the fulfillment of basic human needs for life is a right.

This weekend might be a good time to ponder these bedrock elements of Catholic Social Teaching. And to ask ourselves how we might personally get involved in creating a more just and fair society for the betterment of all who labor.

Your Brother in Christ,
Deacon Paul

Work is fundamental to the dignity of the person. Work, to use an image, 'anoints' with dignity, fills us with dignity, makes us similar to God who has worked and still works, who always acts.

— Pope Francis —

St. Mark Development Office News

Development Office News:

If you are creating or updating your Will, please prayerfully consider St. Mark the Evangelist Church and School as a beneficiary! This is a great way for you to leave a positive legacy to your home parish of St. Mark and help ensure our facilities and ministries are well kept and taken care of for many years to come!

If you already have included St. Mark as a beneficiary in your Will, please notify the parish office and bring a copy of your Will for our records to ensure your intentions are fulfilled.

There are many ways to bequeath to St. Mark, such as willing property, money in savings and retirement funds, stocks, and other things of value to St. Mark.

If you have any questions, please contact Rusty Albertson, Director of Development, at St. Mark the Evangelist Catholic Church. His email is: ralbertson@stmarkindy.org and his phone extension is 106.

FAITH FORMATION

Sunday School catechesis registration is now available. This very important ministry provides an opportunity for our children who do not attend our parish school, to learn more about our Catholic faith and prepare them to receive the Sacraments. Our Children receive their First Reconciliation and First Holy Communion in Second Grade, and they are Confirmed by the Archbishop in Eighth Grade. Or if there are children who may have missed the opportunities and need to catch up, we are always available to assist families who may need this help.

Children's Catechesis program is divided into four groups, ages 3 through Kindergarten, grades First through Third, grades Fourth through Sixth and Grades Seventh and Eighth. We will meet on Sunday mornings, 10:30 am – 11:30am for all the ages/grades, in the lower level of Msgr. Schafer Hall.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Chris Risch, Dir. Of Parish Ministries, crisch@stmarkindy.org or 317-787-8246, ext 107.

If your child is preparing for Confirmation, please contact Bethany Kuhn, Dir. Of Youth Ministries, bkuhn@stmarkindy.org, or 317-787-8246, ext 101.

Online registration is available for all programs, scan the QR codes above, or find the link in the Friday email or on the church website!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Last week we took a breather at the food pantry for deep cleaning and maintenance tasks as we head toward a very busy stretch that extends until the end of the year.

We could really use some extra help on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday family shopping hours. As a result, parishes throughout the city have been asked to seek new volunteers.

Southside parishes are 'first up' during the week of September 11th thru 15th.

Here are details:

Tues & Thurs. from 7:30am to 12:30pm

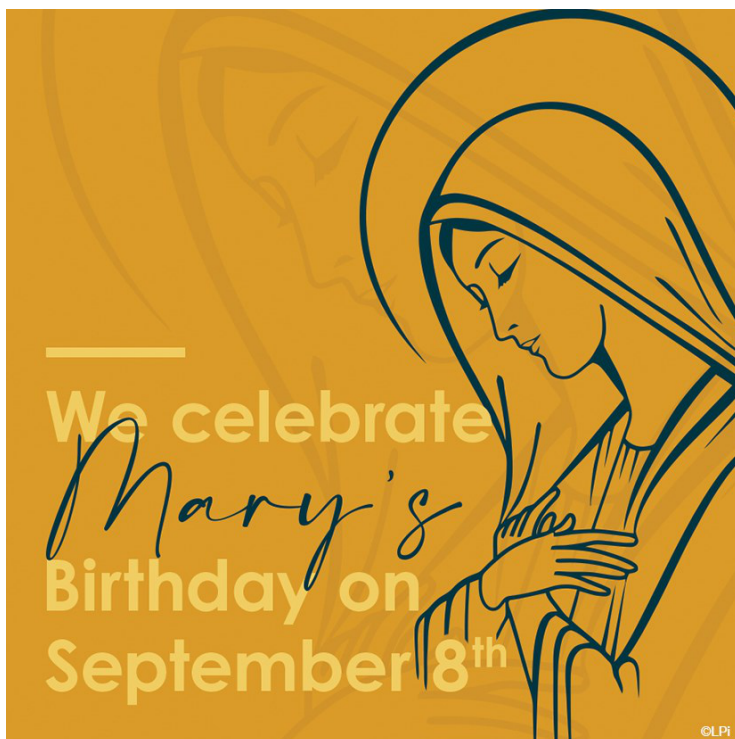

Thurs. evening from 4:30pm to 7pm

Friday from 8:30am to 12:30pm

You do NOT NEED to be a SVdP member.

Sign up at SVdPindy.org.

Click the "I Want to Help" prompt and scroll all the way down to the BLUE BOX titled sign up for a weekday 9/5 thru 12/31.

MINISTRY FOR MATURING ADULTS

"God has created me to do him some definite service; he has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another. I have my (purpose) mission...I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught." St. John Henry Newman

Knowing your PURPOSE is the KEY to a happy life...at any age. And often God has instilled, within each of us, a purpose...often focused on SERVING others. Three simple steps can help unlock your purpose:

- Find out how you want to help.
 - Find out who you want to help.
 - Find out what energizes you (and what drains you).
- Getting involved with MMA can help you find your purpose.

The Holy Moments: A Handbook for the Rest of Your Life book study session was held on August 24th and a wonderful crowd of "holy moments advocates" enjoyed food/drink, a powerful talk presented by Deacon Paul, and then participated in small group discussion. If you would like a free copy of the book, the study guide, and a copy of Deacon's talk, contact Steve Helmich at 317-903-9657 (cell/text) or stevehelmich50@gmail.com and those materials will be delivered to you.

"A HOLY MOMENT is a single moment in which you open yourself to God. You make yourself available to Him. You set aside personal preference and self-interest, and for one moment you do what you prayerfully believe God is calling you to do." Matthew Kelly

Do you need:

- some help with some minor "repairs and fixes" at your home or apartment?
- transportation to the doctor, mass, or some other important appointment?
- other help or assistance?

CONTACT: Steve Helmich at 317-903-9657 (cell/text) or stevehelmich50@gmail.com

"I shall pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there be any good thing that I can do to my fellow human being, let me do it now. For I shall not pass this way again."
