Deacon Nick's Corner

Deacon's Corner – 9-10 September 2023
Gospel of Matthew 18:15-20

“Jesus said to His disciples, “If your brother sins against you, go (alone) and tell him his fault between you...If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you...If he refuses to listen to them, tell the Church...(and) if he (even) refuses to listen to them, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector...”

In Jesus' time, Gentiles and tax collectors were not treated well and were, in fact, avoided in daily life as much as was possible. Is this how you would like to treat a family member, a valued workmate, or brothers and sisters in your faith and social communities?

I came across this recently... “There is a Spanish story of a father and a son who had become estranged. The son ran away, and the father set off to find him. He searched for months to no avail. Finally, in a last desperate effort to find his son, the father put an advertisement in a Madrid newspaper. The ad read: ‘Dear Paco, meet me in front of this newspaper office at noon on Saturday. All is forgiven. I love you! Your Father.’ On Saturday, 800 guys named Paco showed up, looking for forgiveness and love from their fathers.” (Source Unknown)

Both Matthew's Gospel and the Spanish story are talking about troubled relationships. In Matthew, Jesus is teaching us about a very fraternal approach on how we should attempt to repair damaged relationships when there is disagreement between the parties. So, how do we do this? The very first thing to do is pray about what happened and to look inside our own hearts and actions – do we have any fault in the situation? If we do, then let's admit that ourselves and to God. We must put aside our pride and our hurt and go to our brother or sister to make peace between us. We should have a spirit of humility and not be judgmental. We should be ready to listen to the other person. It may not be easy, but won't it be worth it if you are reconciled to each other? Forgiveness is a two-way street, so learn to forgive that you also may be forgiven.

Jesus is very clear that we must first go alone to the other person and try to resolve our differences and forgive each other as necessary. Sometimes, the situation may call for others to be involved. When that happens, Jesus tells us to take “two or three” others with us. If even this fails, then our Lord says go to the Church for help.

The important thing to realize in the Gospel is that Jesus wants us to be reconciled to each other, to love and respect each other enough to be forgiving of faults on both sides. He tells us THREE different ways to approach any discord among us. We are all sinful at times, yet God sent His Son for our salvation because HE loves us, all of us, even though we sin! Christ is our model of love. If we profess to be Christians, then we should always seek ways to show His same forgiving love to our family members, our work and social friends, and even those who have hurt us in some manner. This is the love that fosters communion within the Church, and that makes Jesus present among us.

“For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them!” – Mt 18:20

God Bless,
Deacon Nick Martin

Thousands of Pizzas Await Pantry Families

This happy story follows below...but first some important business.

- On Tues/Thurs/Fri of the coming week, southside parishes are asked to staff family shopping days at the SVdP food pantry at 3001 E. 30th St.
- Areas that need help include bread, dry goods, fresh fruit/veggie table, meat table, dairy, cart wrangler, intake and more.

Here are details:

- Tues or Thurs. - 7:30am to 12:30pm
- Thurs. evening - 4:30pm to 7pm
- Friday -8:30am to 12:30pm

You do NOT NEED to be a SVdP member to help out! Sign up at SVdPindy.org.

Click the “I Want to Help” prompt and scroll all the way down to the BLUE BOX titled “sign up for a weekday 7/5 thru 12/31.”

So, back to the pizza. In addition to the usual food we distribute...we also get some unusual surprises. Like pumpkin pies, a 500 pound tote of Cheez-it crackers, fancy Italian salami...and recently, thousands of DiGiorno personal pizzas. Hopefully, we will get to help put them into lots of shopping carts next week.

MINISTRY FOR MATURING ADULTS

Loving Father, here I am. I trust that you have an incredible plan for me. Transform me. Transform my life. Everything is on the table. Take what you want to take and give what you want to give. Transform me into the person you created me to be, so I can live the life you envision for me. I hold nothing back; I am 100 percent available. How can I help? Amen.

Researchers and observers of human nature remind us that the number-one fear most people have is the fear of having lived a meaningless life. As in every stage of life, our eldering years bring many challenging fears: health concerns, financial worries, and more. The most important challenge, though, seems to be finding or continuing to find meaning in life.

Deciding to create holy moments in the world has proven to be a very powerful way to find meaning and purpose. Read on to find out how you can learn more about holy moments.

The Holy Moments: A Handbook for the Rest of Your Life book study session was held on August 24th and a wonderful crowd of “holy moments advocates” enjoyed food/drink, a powerful talk presented by Deacon Paul, and then participated in small group discussion. If you would like a free copy of the book, the study guide, and a copy of Deacon’s talk, contact Steve Helmich at 317-903-9657 (cell/text) or stevhelmich50@gmail.com and those materials will be delivered to you.

“A Holy Moment is a single moment in which you open yourself to God. You make yourself available to Him. You set aside personal preference and self-interest, and for one moment you do what you prayerfully believe God is calling you to do.” Matthew Kelly

Do you need:

- some help with some minor “repairs and fixes” at your home or apartment?
- transportation to the doctor, mass, or some other important appointment?
- other help or assistance?
