

2025-2026 Religious Education

CALENDAR EXPLANATION

We are happy to once again provide religious education to help parents in their role as primary educators of your children. Students coming to us should already have been taught the basics at home such as making the sign of the cross and genuflecting. We are here to help parents hand on the faith not to replace the role of parents. The parish serves as a partner for parents as they hand on the faith to their children.

Please note that there is a calendar for K-8th grade and another for high school (including juniors for Confirmation). We do not have class on Wednesdays that are white.

Family Nights

Family nights continue! Remember, Family nights are required for Religious Education families. Additionally, there are two nights that are aimed to help your family more fully experience the seasons of Advent, (Lesson and Carols Dec. 17th) and Lent, (Family Stations of the Cross March 18th). We will not have online sign up for family nights but will still check families in for these. There will be no regular religious education classes on family nights for elementary, middle or high school students. Families should attend family nights together.

Ash Wednesday + Holy Days of Obligation

These dates are marked on the calendar, and we will not have class these nights. However, you should attend Mass as a family on these days!
