Pastor's Message

CARDINAL O'MALLEY STATEMENT FOLLOWING VIOLENCE

January 7, 2020

"The beginning of the Prayer of St. Francis is familiar to most of us: "Lord, make me an instrument of your peace". And it is peace we need in our nation today, united by the common good of our people. The violence witnessed in our nation's capital yesterday serves only to inflame our divisions and pit citizen against citizen at a time we need to be united. We reject all forms of violence including the acts of those who stormed our Capitol. We pray for those who lost their lives and for their loved ones and for the injured. We live in a divided nation and the challenges our nation faces are significant.

Our recovery from yesterday's assault will require the best talents of our civic leaders. Very soon President-elect Biden and Vice President-elect Harris will be sworn in to lead our country. In the spirit of what makes America a beacon of light and democracy for the entire world we must set aside our divisions and together go about the work of helping to lift people out of poverty, healing the sick, welcoming the immigrant and address systemic racism, and many other tasks.

Let us heed the words of St. Francis' simple prayer: "where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy."

SAINT OF THE WEEK SAINT FLORIAN

St. Florian was born around 250 AD in the ancient Roman city of Aelium Cetium, in what is today Sankt Pölten, Austria

Florian was a respected Roman army officer whose responsibilities included commanding a fire brigade. He was undoubtedly highly respected by the authorities as.

However, when the Diocletian persecution began, Florian's legendary "Acts" state that he gave himself up at Lorch to the soldiers of the governor, Aquilinus when they were rounding up Christians.

He would not denounce his faith, therefore the decision was to burn him at the stake. Florian apparently spoke about being consumed by fire as a positive way for him to enter into heaven. So the soldiers instead, tortured him in other ways, including ripping the skin off his body. Finally the soldiers looped a rope around Florian's neck and pitched him into the River Enns where he drowned.

Florian's body was recovered and buried by a Christian lady. Later his remains were taken to the Augustinian Abbey of St. Florian near the present day city of Linz, Austria.

In 1138 King Casimir of Poland and the Bishop of Cracow requested that some of St. Florian's relics be taken to the city of Cracow. Since that time St. Florian has been considered a patron saint of Poland, along with his patronage of the city of Linz. There were many miracles reported through his intercession. The Feast Day of Saint Florian is celebrated on May 4.

Saint Florian is the Patron Saint of Linz, Austria; Kraków, Poland; chimneysweeps; firefighters; soap boilers; Upper Austria patron to all things in the prevention of danger from fire.
