Pastor's Message

The signs of new life in our garden and in our congregation speak of Easter!!! Toni Gilardi is heading up a project to renew our garden- please help us. Also a young persons group have begun meeting here every Thursday at 630 for a rosary and mass called Pure of Heart. Check them out!!!

Both of these signs of new life reflect the joy of the Easter message that rings out across the whole earth- that something truly new and completely unprecedented has happened and changed existence itself. Christ has been resurrected from the dead and opened the door to the possibility of a new life that is no longer subject to time, a new divine life immersed in the very eternity of God and more- an invitation to participate in the divine life of the Trinity! With Jesus' resurrection begins a new condition of being human, which illuminates and transforms our daily existence and opens a qualitatively novel future possibility for all of humanity.

Easter offers each of us personally the newness of a profound and complete passage from a life subject to the slavery of sin to a life of freedom, inspired by love, the most powerful force in the universe that breaks down all barriers and builds new harmony in our hearts and in our relationships with others.

We can begin again!!! Mary Magdalene is perhaps one of my favorite characters to contemplate during Easter as she was chosen to be the first witness. As such her life is a very symbol of conversion and resurrection. She in fact embodies the reality that one can die to the old life and begin a brand new life. Her dying to self is a powerful example and inspiration which holds out indestructible hope to all who yearn for freedom and new life. For those who do not want to be forever defined by their past.

The resurrection however must be received into a heart in order to affect the transformation.

We must allow this gift to be like leaven within our hearts that raise and lift us up to enter into the already of heaven.

Let us embrace this new life and share the good news with our friends and family!!!

God bless each of you!!
