Pastor's Message

In these next two weeks we are celebrating the first communion's for our school at Saint Johns and also for those outside the school. It is a privileged opportunity for us to be reminded of the first time that we received our Lord Jesus Christ. I remember serving in Rome for the missionary sisters of charity. Inside of the sacristy was a sign that said celebrate this Eucharist as if it were your first your last and you're only. It always reminded me of the great gift from heaven that our God gives us every time we come to mass. I recall a Lutheran saying that if I believe like you Catholics that Jesus was really present in the Eucharist I would not go to your mess I would crawl on my knees to receive him. Jesus truly is present to us in the blessed sacrament and awaits us, Ever pouring out infinite gifts of grace. I will end with one of my favorite quotes from JRR Tolkien about the Eucharist. "Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament. . . . There you will find romance, glory, honour, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves on earth, and more than that: Death."

Preparing to celebrate for St Anthony feast.

Thank you volunteers!
