Scripture Corner

ISAIAH AND THE BAPTIST

Today's liturgy has great advice for all followers of Jesus for the Advent season. The prophet Isaiah says in today's Gospel (Luke 3: 1-6): "Prepare the way of the Lord." (vs. 4). That is the Church's purpose for the season of Advent, that all should prepare the way of the Lord. Christ will come on Christmas morning, but will also come in glory at the end of time. If we prepare the way of the Lord by our conduct, we are ready for both comings of Jesus. These important words of preparing the way are found in all four Gospels – a clear sign of their importance in the eyes of Jesus and his Church.

John the Baptist is proclaiming "a Baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins." (vs. 3) People who approached John for baptism committed themselves to preparing the way of the Lord. The Baptist says that repentance was the way to prepare. "Repentance" in the Greek is metanoia, which means literally "change of mind." In this context it could be translated as a "change of heart." Every Christian is being asked to be Christ-centered, not self-centered! Our Lord will often note that to be Christ-centered, his followers must have love of God and love of neighbor – all neighbors!

Luke wrote his Gospel to show that Christ is the savior of all, especially the poor and the sinful. The evangelist finds the universal theme in the last words of Isaiah: "All flesh shall see the salvation of God." (Luke 3: 6/ Isaiah 40: 5)

Luke also has a great concern for history. He sets the coming of the Messiah in the midst of world history. He refers to Tiberius Caesar of Rome, to Pontius Pilate, the governor of Judea. He also mentions Herod of Galilee, Philip and Lysanias. The evangelist also mentions that at the beginning of Christ's ministry the high priests, Annas and Caiaphas, were the religious leaders in the Holy Land.

The prophet Baruch in today's first reading (5: 1-9) declares, "Rise up, Jerusalem, stand upon the heights," (vs. 5) to welcome the exiles home. "God is leading Israel in joy by the light of his glory, with the mercy and justice that are his." (vs. 9) Also in the second reading (Philippians 1: 4-6. 8-11), Saint Paul encourages the Philippians to prepare the way of the Lord by an increase in love and knowledge that they "may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ." (vs. 10) Paul is referring to the Second Coming of Jesus, but his words can also prepare us for the coming of our Lord on Christmas day.

ADORATION 101

How to Make a Holy Hour Be present to the One who is present

"So, you could not stay awake with me for even an hour? Be on guard, and pray that you may not undergo the test." Mt 26:40-41

There are different ways to "watch one hour" with the Lord. One of the most powerful and fruitful ways is to spend an hour in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. We call this a Holy Hour because it is an hour spent in the presence of the Holy Eucharist: Christ, Himself, the One who alone is Holy.

FATHER ANDREW WHITE SCHOOL

Father Andrew White School Crusader Connections

St. Aloysius Cornerstone: Father Andrew White School students were present during the laying of our historical 2018 cornerstone in our new parish building. You can view photos here:

www.saintalloysiuschurch.org/photoalbums/laying-the-cornerstone

The Virtue of Generosity: Our parish school continues to participate in the Virtues in Practice program this year. Each month, the whole school focuses on the same virtue as they hope to grow closer to Jesus by imitating His life and virtues. They also learn more about the saints who exemplify these good habits. This month students and their families are learning about the virtue of generosity. Please join them by modeling how you give without counting the cost during the month of December.

Celebrate Advent: Join our students as they begin "Lighting the Way" to prepare for the birth of Jesus. Students are practicing the virtue of generosity, as they love and care for our neighbors by bringing in donations of pasta, peanut butter and jelly, cereals, and canned vegetables that will help those at the SoMD Food Bank & Outreach Services and the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry.

SCRIP Cards: Father Andrew White school is selling gift cards in the vestibule of the church after each Mass. The school purchases gift cards at a discount and sells them at face value. They carry a number of cards in stock, and can order cards from 100s of other retailers. If we don't have what you are looking for, we can order it and have it ready for pick up the following week after Mass. Order forms are available in the vestibule. Please consider purchasing your Angel Tree gift cards from our Scrip Program.
