PASTOR'S CORNER

Pathway to the Kingdom

Luke 3:1-6

A sign of God's ongoing favor for our Jewish friends and their forebears is that they derive undying hope from such beautiful passages as we have today from the prophet Baruch: "God will show all the earth your splendor: you will be named by God forever the peace of justice, the glory of God's worship" (5:3, 4). Despite the tremendous persecution they have endured over the centuries, especially in the previous one, and the unresolved situation regarding the city of Jerusalem among competing religious and ethnic groups, the faithful Jew, wherever he or she lives, looks to the glorious fulfillment of these inspiring words.

Two millennia ago, as a faithful Jew, John the Baptist saw the imminent fulfillment of Baruch's prophecy, similarly expressed by Isaiah, which he proclaimed anew: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths" (Isaiah 40:3/Luke 3:4). Before Jesus appeared at the Jordan River, no doubt John was ignorant of the full implication of these words. By his baptizing, John was providing the opportunity for everyone to prepare for the coming of the Lord through a recognition of one's sins and genuine repentance. When Jesus submitted himself to John's baptism, God the Father anointed him visibly with the Holy Spirit as Son of God, and with that, the kingdom of God was publicly inaugurated.

Now that these events have already happened, how can we maintain the amazing sense of expectation that John and the Old Testament prophets had? When we subsist in peace, joy, hope, and thanksgiving, we are ready for the Lord's advent. We do that day by day expressing these attitudes most especially as God's family at the Sunday Holy Mass. While the kingdom of God is most significantly manifested in the Church, we assist in the unfolding of his kingdom by working for justice for those who have been denied it, helping the poor and vulnerable, defending the sanctity of all human life, and living resourcefully, mindful of the fragility of the earth and its climate.

Peter says, "With the Lord, one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day" (II Peter 3:8). In saying, "Come, Lord Jesus!" (Revelation 22:20), we recognize that mystically and sacramentally he is already in our midst. Let us prepare our hearts to greet him!

~Fr. David
