PASTOR'S CORNER

The Visitation: "Tithing to the Messiah"

Luke 1:39-45

The visit of Mary to her kinswoman Elizabeth was part of the preparatory events for the birth of Jesus. Elizabeth's pregnancy in her old age was the sign that what the angel said to Mary was true. Trusting in God's word, Mary naturally wanted to see for herself the confirmation that she would be mother of the Savior.

Recently, a new insight occurred to me regarding this second of the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary. Clearly stated by Luke is that Elizabeth and her husband Zechariah were members of the tribe of Levi, those who were appointed to minister in the Temple. More particularly, both were in the line of Aaron, the brother of Moses, whose descendants were designated as priests. Distinct from that, kings were prophesied to come from the tribe of Judah. On Mary's part, it is unclear to which tribe she belonged, but tradition has reasonably held that she, like Joseph, her betrothed, were descended from the line of Judah and King David himself. We might surmise this from, according to Luke, Mary's accompanying Joseph to Bethlehem, the city of David, to be enrolled.

Based on the probability of Mary being from the tribe of Judah, the comparison comes to mind of the meeting of Abram and Melchizedek, the king of what may have been at the time the Canaanite city of Jerusalem and a priest of God, as they understood God to be (Genesis 14:18-20). The writer of Hebrews says that Levi, who represented the Old Testament priesthood, though still in potential existence in the loins of his great grandfather Abram (7:9), was "tithed" to this mysterious priest Melchizedek when Abram offered him "a tenth of everything." As ministers of the Temple, the Levites would later be receiving tithes from the people. But now the reverse has happened. As great as Abram was, he recognized in Melchizedek someone of higher status. In return, Abram received the high priest's blessing, who in foreshadowing Jesus Christ, the eternal high priest, offered up bread and wine.

Likewise, at the Visitation, Elizabeth recognized someone greater than the baby she was carrying. As a Levite, her son John the Baptist would have had a great future ahead for himself in presiding in the Temple had not God called him otherwise. Elizabeth exclaimed to Mary, "Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?" (Luke 1:42, 43). In Elizabeth, the tribe of Levi recognized the greatest fruit and fulfillment of the tribe of Judah and the promise of a Davidic Messiah that came through Judah's line of kings. In this meeting, the Temple of old does obeisance to the New! Continuing the analogy, the elderly Elizabeth, representing the tribe of Levi, was like the Ark of the Old Covenant; Mary, the Ark of the New Covenant (Revelation 11:19).

Through Mary's cooperation with God's plan, we are a priestly people in Christ and members of his Body. We are now God's temple in his Holy Spirit! (I Corinthians 3:17).

~Fr. David
