Baptized in the Holy Spirit

John 1:29-34

Even considering that Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit, we could still say that he was baptized in the Spirit at the Jordan River by John. When pouring the water over him, John saw the Holy Spirit come down and remain upon him (vs. 33). Baptism means an immersion, so Jesus was immersed in the Holy Spirit, and it “remained” upon him as he went about repairing the wounds of fallen humanity.

With John having provided the outward sign of water, the baptism we receive through water and the invocation of the Trinity was instituted by Jesus so that we might be reborn in the Spirit and become a new people made in the image and likeness of God. Baptism introduces us into the life of Christ and makes us members of his priestly people. The sacrament of Confirmation, which follows, completes baptism and bestows the fullness of the Holy Spirit.

It seems, however, that a distinction can still be made between what happens objectively in us, that is, the sanctifying grace given to the soul, and our “subjective” grasping of its significance, with an accompanying commitment to live a more authentic Christian life. Baptism in the Holy Spirit seems to imply a special gift above and beyond the sacrament. It involves a conscious realization of one’s Christian calling, a deepening conversion and devotion to Christ, characterized by a personal relationship with him. The achievement of this stage may delay until well into adulthood. This is understandable, since many of us receive the sacrament at a young age when we have little or no appreciation of its full meaning for one’s life. Good habits established early on, however, can at least keep the door open for further spiritual maturation.

Another cause for the delay of spiritual adulthood may be doubt about whether one can live up to the moral requirements of Jesus. Yet it happens that God takes the initiative through a special gift of the Holy Spirit. All then becomes clear and one is empowered to undertake the high road of Christian living. One should add, however, that a deeper conversion does not mean arrival at perfection. Rather, the Spirit enables us to see deeply into our need for God’s mercy and, for example, make a more concerted use of the Sacrament of Reconciliation in the event of sin.

In the meantime, we will look forward to our study series beginning on Monday evening of the first week of Lent for a deepening of our appreciation of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

~Fr. David

RESPECT LIFE

Even with the overturning of Roe v. Wade in June 2022, a decision that returns the abortion issue to the electorate, many states continue not to recognize children in their mothers' wombs as persons warranting protection under the law. Federal laws in our country fail to protect the lives of unborn children, and many political leaders at the state and federal level, work actively to increase access to abortion. Some falsely describe it as health care and even as a basic human right." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "Priorities at the Polls"

ST. VINCENT de PAUL

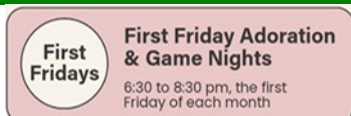

The next open pantry is Sat., Feb. 21 9-11AM. Food will be collected after all Masses, February 21/22 Community Sunday. THANK YOU for your generosity, helping the SVdP help others!

The International Twinning Program is a powerful way for St. Vincent de Paul Conferences to connect with Vincentians across the world. Twinning is not simply a financial arrangement, but a relationship rooted in faith, prayer, and solidarity. Through correspondence, shared intentions, and mutual support, Conferences build meaningful partnerships that reflect the true spirit of St. Vincent de Paul.

Our St. Aloysius SVdP Conference is Twinning with the Santa Catalina Labouré Conference in Peru. We are excited to be able to support the efforts of Santa Catalina Labouré Conference in vital works abroad, including food and water distribution, education, and healthcare initiatives.

We will be collecting monthly donations starting community Sunday Jan. 18, and any contributions will be greatly appreciated. Please contact Mary Ann Friesen or Catherine Stewart at twinning@saintalloysiuschurch.org, or by phone 703-731-3575 or 240-538-5788, for more info.
