Now you have a choice

Because of the sensitive nature, and often sense of shame in the heart of the penitent, Confession can feel like a place of fear, and is certainly a place of deep vulnerability. Often times penitents feel more comfortable behind a screen to confess their sins. So from now on Fr Kyle will offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation either face-to-face or kneeling behind a screen. There are few greater experiences than being freed from the weight of sin. Come any Saturday from 3:30-4:15 pm. Fr Kyle will be in the cry room waiting.

Do not be afraid.

SPOTLIGHT ON . . .

Friends of St Francis

"I wish I could help..."

If you have ever said these words to yourself — you can, whatever your age, whatever your skill.

The work of the Friends of St Francis is truly the Gospel message in action. We are a service organization whose aim is to bring social justice and the friendship of true charity to those in need. For, in the "distressing disguise" of the poor, we see Christ. We meet on the second Thursday of each month, from 9:30-11 am, in the hall.

Friends of St Francis is easy to join, and we'd love to have you! No special qualifications are required, other than the desire to join with others to help those in need. A phone call to 985-515-2944 will put you in touch with a current member. You can find out more, be invited to the next meeting, or leave your name and phone number. We welcome you!

"Let go of your plans."

"... The first hour of your morning belongs to God. Then tackle the day's work he charges you with, and he will give you the power to accomplish it."

~ St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein), feast day August 9

Edith Stein (1891-1942) was a German Jewish philosopher who converted to the Catholic Church and became a Carmelite nun, taking the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross. She is a martyr and saint of the Church. Precocious and unruly as a child, she formally rejected God as a teen. As a young adult and brilliant student of philosophy, she studied alongside Christian intellectuals. At 30 she picked up the autobiography of St Teresa of Avila and couldn't put it down. She was convinced of its truth, converted to the Catholic faith, was baptized, and took religious vows (though privately, out of sensitivity to her parents). She taught at a Catholic university and was the first to translate some of the works of St Thomas Aquinas into German. When the Nazis expelled her from her position because of her Jewish heritage, she formally entered the Carmelites in Cologne, who sent her to Holland for her safety. However, after the Dutch bishops spoke out against the Nazis, the Nazis retaliated by arresting all Catholics of Jewish heritage and deporting them to Auschwitz. On August 9, 1942, she was murdered in the gas chamber. Pope St John Paul II canonized her in 1998. She is the patron saint of those grieving the loss of parents, and one of Europe's six patron saints.
