From Our Pastor: THE WORD OF GOD IN THE WORDS OF MEN

Up until now, we've reflected on the analogy of the Word of God in creation, the pinnacle being human beings made in God's image. The works of creation speak to us of God; that's why, to this day, nature itself elicits transcendental thoughts in believers and non-believers alike.

Today, however, we touch on controversy. God also chooses to reveal himself through the words of men. When God spoke to Moses through the burning bush, he called Moses to go speak to the people of Israel and to Pharaoh. "Then Moses answered, 'But behold, they will not believe me or listen to my voice, for they will say, "The LORD did not appear to you,"'" (Exodus 4:1). Moses had fled Egypt because he had murdered someone, but God chose to speak through a man who had no public credibility. The prophets throughout the Old Testament were the same. God chose to speak through Jonah, who was essentially prejudiced against the Ninevites. Prophets were killed because they were not believed by the people, or the king. God chose to speak through broken instruments, men and women who had inherited the curse of Adam. Jeremiah was too young; Hosea married a prostitute; Elijah went against the king. Certain men were blessed, David and Solomon among them, but each had their faults—David his lust and Solomon his vanity. There was always a doubt in people's minds about the truthfulness of a prophet. Why would God use such broken instruments to proclaim his Word?

It was no different after Christ. Jews would not believe the truth of Christ's resurrection, even as the eyewitnesses described it. Paul was rejected by Jewish communities throughout the Mediterranean, and so preached to the Gentiles. Peter and John were imprisoned for proclaiming the truth. Stephen and countless others were put to death because their human mouths spoke the Word of God.

If we think about it, the whole of the Scriptures is the Word of God written in the words of men. Each writer was indeed inspired, but the words he wrote were his own. God dictated nothing. He possessed no one. The whole of the Scriptures is God speaking to us through men.

There's an even further layer. We read the Scriptures in English or Spanish, but they were written in Hebrew and Greek. The original manuscripts have been long lost to time. The oldest copies we have are aged around 300 years before Christ. Yet the events of Moses are dated around 1,700 years before that. What we experience as the Word of God has gone through thousands of handwritten copies in Hebrew and Greek, before it was translated into Greek and Latin, then from Latin into French, German, Spanish, and English. The oldest English translation is approximately 500 years old, and the one we use at Mass, the New American Bible, is less than 100 years old. So not only do we trust the fallible humans who wrote the Scriptures but the fallible humans who translated them as well. Yet, it remains the Word of God. We trust that just as God reveals himself in creation, he also reveals himself in the words of man, that we humans can speak truth. Surprising as it may be, God uses broken vessels for his prized things.

Archbishop Aymond here next Saturday

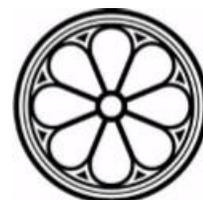

Archbishop Gregory Aymond will confirm seven of our young adults on Sat 5/25 at the 5 pm Mass. Whether or not you have a family member being confirmed, you're invited to attend this special occasion and the reception afterwards. An archbishop's visit is a wonderful reminder that our parish is part of a much bigger, wider Catholic family—the Archdiocese of New Orleans—indeed, the worldwide Catholic Church. Our shepherd is taking the time to come out to be with us; he wants to spend time with us. If you can, come spend time with him. If you'd like to contribute food for the reception, please call Renée Herbert, 985-630-1121.

Sign up soon for July 17 Holy Family retreat at St Joseph Abbey

Suffering is a regular part of human life, like death and mosquitoes. That doesn't mean we don't try our best to avoid it. However, faith in Christ gives new meaning to suffering. If you want to go deep, Holy Family's Altar & Rosary Society is hosting a day retreat entitled "How Faith and Suffering Bring Hope" by Fr Paul Hart, director of the Christian Life Center at the Abbey. The day begins at 8:30 am and ends at 3 pm, and is open to both men and women of all ages. The cost is $35 and includes a hot lunch. Since we must meet a minimum headcount, there is a deadline of June 11 to bring/send your registration to our office. You can also put it in the collection in a marked envelope. If you have never made a retreat before, a one-day retreat is a good way to get your feet wet. Hope to see many of you there!
