From Our Pastor:

THE NEED FOR THE NATIVITY

Charles Dickens retaught to the English-speaking world the wonder of Christmas. That it is a time of joy, cheerfulness, forgiveness, and reunion. Indeed, we can and do experience these in Christ whose birth we celebrate. But these days can also be a time of great difficulty. It can cause loneliness; it reminds us of those whom we have lost. It reconnects us with a family of broken individuals, who remind us of our own brokenness. As much as it promises to be a time of joy, sadness lurks in the wings.

Then, we also experience a decided lack of peace. Shopping, cooking, parties, cards, shopping and the anxiety of trying to find the "perfect present," it all adds up to disturb the peace as we celebrate the coming of the Prince of Peace.

It's during these times of sadness and anxiety, fear and helplessness that we wish we could go somewhere to find peace. But, we can. It's in a stable in Bethlehem, although a little cold and drafty. Lying in a manger accompanied by sheep, donkeys, and oxen is the sleeping

CELEBRATING OUR PATRONAL FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH

The Feast of the Holy Family always occurs on the Sunday within the Octave (8 days of festive observance) of Christmas. Next Sun 12/29 is that feast day. It's also the last Sunday of the month, and in our family that means it's a "breakfast" Sunday; so we're gonna kick it up a notch to celebrate! All are invited to this special event, and to bring a dish to share. 9:30 am in the hall.

"The virgin birth has never been a major stumbling block in my struggle with Christianity; it's far less mind-boggling than the Power of all Creation stooping so low as to become one of us."

Madeleine L'Engle, A Stone for a Pillow

Christ child, attended by His mother, watched over by His foster father. This Nativity scene, which isn't just something we set up, like we would a train set or doll house, is a place we can turn to, to dwell in peace. Yes, the odor may be far from luxuriant, but the company is heavenly. Here in the stable is hope come to life. Here in this place is the deepest sense of awe and wonder, normally associated with children. Here the little drummer gives his percussive gift, shepherds come in homage, kings kneel before a swaddled newborn in a manger. Here heaven quite literally meets earth.

Who's to say we can't set up a Nativity scene in our hearts, in our imagination, that we can return to anytime to adore the Christ child, to dwell in the peace of Bethlehem. Yes, eventually, we may need to flee to Egypt, but now, we can be like Mary in the Gospel of Luke and ponder all these things in our hearts.

The mystery of Christmas, with its wonder and joy, can always be found at the Nativity scene. Christmas may be December 25th, but the Nativity can be our refuge anytime, anywhere.

So come, let us adore Him, Christ the Lord, the Prince of Peace.

Fr. Kyle

MEN: YOUR MISSION, SHOULD YOU CHOOSE TO ACCEPT IT: PERSONAL HOLINESS

But it's impossible to be holy today, right? In a world filled with fallen heroes, comfort, and compromise, Saints can seem like they belong in the past. Still, Jesus looks upon you and calls you to holiness. Rediscover that you were made for more than what the world offers. Holiness is not only possible—it's your mission.

Pilgrimage to Canada, May 2020

Although we may not think about it, Canada is filled with beautiful Catholic pilgrimage sites. Deacon Carlos Ramirez, and possibly Fr Kyle, will lead a pilgrimage there, May 13-18, 2020. The group will visit such places as the Basilica of Ste-Anne-de-Beaupré (pictured), which welcomes 1.5 million pilgrims per year, the Cathedral of Notre-Dame de Québec, the Shrine of Our Lady of the Cape, and St Joseph's Oratory, home of St André Bessette and one of the largest churches in the world. It should prove to be a trip of great beauty and prayer. The overall cost, including flight, lodging, and meals (except lunches), is $2,000. Interested? See Fr Kyle ASAP!
