19 OUT-OF-THE-BOX THINGS TO DO FOR LENT, PART 2

an article by author, speaker, and Covington religion teacher, Colin MacIver

Tired of giving up chocolate for Lent?

Here are some other creative ideas on what you can do for your Lenten commitment.

To be clear, this is not a list of things to do instead of fasting and sacrificing during Lent. I'm always on guard for talk that sounds like, "I'm not doing a regular Lent, I'm doing a cool Lent." Fasting and sacrifice are essential practices modeled and endorsed by Christ himself and are among the main actions that the Church calls us to during the Lenten season. (No pain, no gain. No cross, no crown.)

That said, prayer and almsgiving—the source and fruit of sacrifice and fasting—are also essential to Lenten observance. Self-giving love must flow from and into the Trinity, the source and destiny of all love.

Prayer is first. In our prayer we are driven by the Spirit into the desert with Christ (Matthew 4:1) and in our prayer we are nourished by every word that comes from the mouth of God (Matthew 4:4). Almsgiving, the other main action of Lenten observance, means offering or giving with love. When we pray and fast we grow in real liberty and can more effectively love as God loves.

So far, so good, right? The question, though, is how? If we just vaguely resolve to pray and give more, we are likely to slip into inertia. At the end of Lent we will probably shrug our shoulders, eat a Peep, and hope to do better next year.

Let's look at practices in the categories of prayer and almsgiving that can also make this Lent one for the history books. I'll offer some ideas for incorporating both prayer and almsgiving into your Lenten plan. I hope these can help you as you pray about your own personalized Lenten prescription. [For #1-10, see last week's bulletin.]

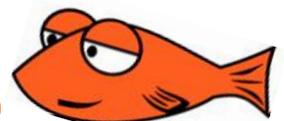

11. Good Samaritan Bags

Get 20 or so reusable bags and pack them with healthy snacks, toiletries, socks, and other helpful items. Keep them in your car and make it a goal to hand them out to people in your community who could use them.

Fridays in Lent, 4-7 pm, only $9. (Where else can you eat a hot meal for $9, and help others at the same time?)

12. Saturday Service Road Trip

Plan a day of service with your family and/or friends that might even involve a bit of travel. Where? Consider contacting a religious order who has an apostolate that could use volunteers. Get up early, get some coffee, pray a Rosary on the way, roll up your sleeves and get involved.

13. Rice Bowl Done Right

CRS Operation Rice Bowl is fairly ubiquitous and is the real deal in terms of effective, well-run charities. Do Rice Bowl well and with a spirit of real almsgiving. Maybe you don't keep so much cash around anymore, but you can give digitally on their site as well. Consider checking out their resources and make Lent a season of real substantial giving that can make a difference to our brothers and sisters in need.

14. Secret Santa (but Lent)

St Nicholas wasn't only generous during Advent and Christmas. From what we know of him, it would seem that he had a year round penchant for identifying the concrete needs of specific people and responded with magnanimity. Take the season of Lent to save up and shower someone with anonymous gifts. Thanks to the miracle of online shopping and delivery, they need never know it was you. This is a chance to be a stealthy superhero of generosity known only to your heavenly Father.

15. Lenten Baby Shower

Collect diapers, wipes, bottles, baby clothes and other items that you would buy for a standard baby shower. During Holy Week, bring it all over to a local crisis pregnancy center.

16. Lectio Divina

Read the Bible daily during Lent: 1) Pick a short passage to read... 2) meditate on it... 3) pray about it... 4) listen to what God speaks to your heart... 5) enact God's Word in your life.

17. I Was in Prison...

Ministry to those in prison is directly prescribed by Christ. Find a way to get involved. It might begin with a call to your parish and might lead to having a pen pal, prayer partner, or even to taking some time for actual visits to a local prison.

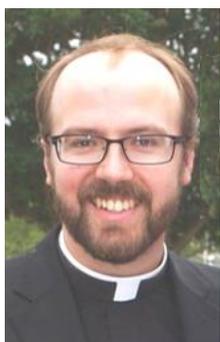

18. Take a Hike

Jesus' time in the desert was a journey of silence and solitude. Take a day by yourself to pray in the wilderness. Depending on where you live this might entail more of a beach or a forest than a desert, but the point is to spend time alone with God in silence. Turn your phone off, on silent, or even leave it behind.

19. Make a List

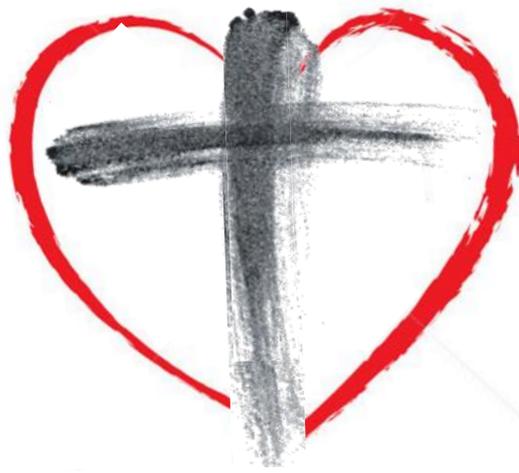

Every Sunday pray about three concrete, actionable things that you are called to do during the upcoming week of Lent. Write them down and accomplish them throughout the week. Take time the following Sunday to reflect and choose things to do during the following week. Repeat the process each week during Lent.
