THE MAGNIFICAT AND THE WORD OF GOD, PART 1 REFLECTIONS ON POPE BENEDICT'S VERBUM DOMINI

Last time I wrote, I was discussing how Pope Benedict sees Mary as the one "we need to look to...in whom the interplay between the word of God and faith was brought to perfection," (VD, 27.) We learn from her obedience to the word of God how to be completely attuned to that word" (VD, 27). In her Magnificat she also shows us her familiarity with the word of God

I will share with you the wonderfully poetic reflection the Holy Father makes in this regard, and then I'll help to break down all that Mary is referencing in her Magnificat in Luke 1. "The Magnificat—a portrait, so to speak, of her soul—is entirely woven from the threads of Holy Scripture, threads drawn from the word of God. Here we see how completely at home Mary is with the word of God, with ease she moves in and out of it. She speaks and thinks with the word of God; the word of God becomes her word, and her word issues from the word of God. here we see how her thoughts are attuned to the thoughts of God, how her will is one with the will of God. Since Mary is completely imbued with the word of God, she is able to become the Mother of the Word Incarnate."¹

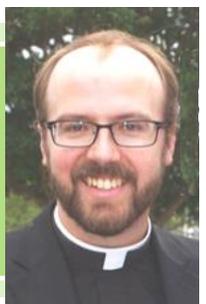

One of the things we respect and even at times envy of our Baptist brothers and sisters is their familiarity with Scripture. It springs from the head so quickly and with such ease. What Pope Benedict was saying is that Mary had the same familiarity with the word of God and more. She knew the words but she also knew personally the one who inspired them. Her whole life was enveloped in the word of God. Her famous prayer, at Elizabeth's house, which we call the Magnificat, shows that. Here is the Magnificat in its entirety. Next week I'll begin to break down its Scriptural roots.

"My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
for he has regarded the low estate of his handmaiden
For behold, henceforth, all generations will call me blessed;
for he who is mighty has done great things for me,
and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on those who fear him
from generation to generation.

He has shown strength with his arm,
he has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
he has put down the mighty from their thrones,
and exalted those of low degree;
he has filled the hungry with good things,
and the sick he has sent away empty.

He has helped his servant Israel,
in remembrance of his mercy,
as he spoke to our fathers,
to Abraham and to his posterity for ever."²

Music Ministers and Lectors

Fr Kyle invites those who serve our parish family in the various liturgical ministries to a Lenten Retreat Day planned especially for you. Both dates are on Saturdays, 9 am-2 pm, here.

Please save the date(s) pertaining to you, and make every effort to attend: Music Ministers 3/14 | Lectors 3/28

Awesome events for teens!

Abbey Youth Fest and others—registration deadlines are approaching! CYO membership is not required. Contact youth minister Eddie Boudreaux: 985-630-9997, or find him at the Wed night CYO gathering.

Got beads?? Yeah, you do...

CYO will happily accept all Mardi Gras beads and other throws you'd like to offload. Please bring them to the church office, Mon-Thurs 8-4, Fri 8-1. We're collecting them to use for the next Washington Parish Fair parade. The cost of these items adds up very quickly, especially with so many teens who want to ride. So: all that stuff's out of your house, and CYO saves $$.

Win/Win!
