

Prom Dress Guideline Examples

- To be officially approved you must actually be wearing the dress to ensure it doesn't look different on you in comparison to the photo.
- Of course not every single type of dress was placed on this guidance poster, so please make sure you check just in case.

Dress Photo	If it fits the Expectations and Dress Code
	1) YES! If I was approving the dress I would just check the back to make sure the dress was hitting above the small of the back
	2) Not allowed. Slit is more than one inch above the knee. Plunging neckline and sheer material that is still allowing skin to show

- 3) Possible YES. Would have to see it on as the cut of the top portion of the dress may be an issue.

- 4) Not allowed. No cutouts below the bra line are allowed even if you use sheer material to cover it and the slit on the dress is too high. Midriff is exposed.

5) No. Slit is four inches above the knee

6) No plunging neckline. It would need a solid color of material that would not allow skin to show. No mesh

7) Possible YES. Would have to see it on

8) YES

9) YES would ask to see on for neckline

10) No. The opening must hit above the small of your back. This one is below the bottom of the ribcage.
