High School Boys Varsity Golf Coach Needed

Nouvel Catholic Central High School is seeking a Boys Varsity Golf Coach for the upcoming Spring, 2026 boys golf season. Candidates should be highly motivated, enthusiastic and knowledgeable about teaching the fundamentals of golf to high school young men. A successful candidate should have high school coaching experience and the time necessary to build a successful boy's golf program. Looking for applicants who are Faith centered, expert communicators and who demonstrate leadership. The Boys Varsity Golf Coach will be responsible for all of our coaching responsibilities, including high school athlete development. Said candidate must have successful completion of the necessary paperwork, a background check, fingerprinting, CPR certification, and the Diocese Virtus course, which are all requirements for Nouvel employees who have regular contact with children.

Interested applicants should submit the following materials:

- Letter of Introduction explaining your interest and qualifications
- Current Resume
- Names, email addresses, and phone numbers of two to three references and/or two letters of reference
