FITH SUNDAY OF LENT

GIVE GLORY TO GOD

On the Fifth Sunday of Lent, just before we begin to enter Holy Week, we are summoned to Bethany. If we had been friends of Mary, Lazarus, and Martha, and found out that Lazarus was gravely ill, we probably would have dropped everything to be with them. This was what was so surprising about the behavior of Jesus. Although he was their close friend, he chose to stay away, that God's glory would be manifested.

This is a persistent theme in John's Gospel. Right to the very end, Jesus' works were meant to give glory to the Father. As our Lenten journey reaches a crescendo, let us be mindful that, as people who have "put on Christ" in baptism, we are also called, by our attitudes and actions, to give glory to God.

QUINTO DOMINGO DE CUARESMA

DA GLORIA A DIOS

En el Quinto Domingo de Cuaresma, justo antes de entrar en la Semana Santa, somos llamados a Betania. Si hubiéramos sido amigos de María, Lázaro y Marta, y nos hubiéramos enterado que Lázaro estaba gravemente enfermo, probablemente lo habríamos dejado todo para estar con ellos. Eso es lo más sorprendente del comportamiento de Jesús. Pese a que era su amigo cercano, eligió mantenerse alejado, para que la gloria de Dios se manifestara.

Este es un tema persistente en el Evangelio de Juan. Hasta el mismo final, las obras de Jesús son para dar gloria al Padre. A medida que nuestra jornada de Cuaresma llega a su apogeo, recordemos que, como personas que "se han revestido de Cristo" en el Bautismo, también somos llamados a dar gloria a Dios en nuestras actitudes y acciones.

MARCH 29, 2020

RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE

Today's Gospel tells us of the raising of Lazarus. In Jesus' exchange with Lazarus' sister Martha, she refers to the general resurrection of the dead on "the last day." Jesus then shifts the perspective by identifying himself as "the resurrection and the life." What does this mean? Jesus earlier had spoken of the hour "when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live" (John 5:25). When Jesus cries out in a loud voice—"Lazarus, come out!"—Jesus fulfills that role in the present, offering resurrection and life here and now, in a new relationship with him. Resurrection is offered not only on the last day, and not only at our physical death, but in the mix of our present daily lives. Sometimes we are buried in tombs of suffering or of entrapment in sin. When we encounter death in its many forms, in faith we can hear Jesus, who summons us out of death and into life.

EZEKIEL'S COUNTER-STORY

It is difficult to overstate the bleak situation faced by the people of Israel described in today's reading from Ezekiel. Babylon had invaded Jerusalem, killed many of its inhabitants, and destroyed the temple. Some of them were forced into exile in Babylon. Their captors and neighbors likely concluded that the Babylonian deity had pummeled the Hebrew deity into submission. Israel's God was as good as dead, and the people of Israel as well. In the midst of this catastrophe, Ezekiel announces a counter-story. The narrative of God's death is false. Israel's God is alive, and God's own breath will restore their life. They will be lifted out of the grave of their grief and despair, and be returned to their land. Ezekiel's message speaks to all of us who know of profound disorientation, of separation from loved ones, and of deep loss. God will bear our unbearable sorrow, and God's spirit will offer new life and hope.

LA RESURRECCIÓN Y LA VIDA

El Evangelio de hoy nos habla de cómo revivió Lázaro. En el dialogo entre Jesús y Marta, la hermana de Lázaro, ella se refiere a la resurrección universal de la muerte en "el último día". Entonces Jesús cambia la perspectiva al identificarse él mismo como "la resurrección y la vida". ¿Qué significa esto? Anteriormente Jesús había hablado de la hora "en que los muertos oirán la voz de Dios, y todos los que la oigan, vivirán" (Juan 5:25). Cuando Jesús con voz alta dice: "¡Lázaro, sal!" Jesús cumple ese papel en el presente, ofreciendo vida nuevamente aquí y ahora en una nueva relación con él.

La resurrección se ofrece no solamente en el último día, y no solamente en nuestra muerte física, pero en la mezcla de nuestras vidas del día a día. Algunas veces estamos enterrados en tumbas de sufrimiento o atrapados en el pecado. Cuando encontramos la muerte en sus muchas formas, con fe podemos escuchar a Jesús, quien nos llama de la muerte a la vida.

LA HISTORIA CONTRARIA DE EZEQUIEL

Es difícil exagerar la situación triste que enfrentó el pueblo de Israel descrito en la lectura de hoy del libro de Ezequiel. Babilonia había invadido Jerusalén, matado a muchos de sus habitantes y destruido el Templo. Algunos de ellos fueron forzados a ir en exilio a Babilonia. Sus captores y vecinos probablemente concluyeron que la deidad babilonia había dado una paliza a la deidad hebrea para someterla. El Dios de Israel estaba tan bueno como muerto, y también el pueblo de Israel.

En medio de esta catástrofe, Ezequiel anuncia una contra historia. El relato de la muerte de Dios es falso. El Dios de Israel está vivo, y el aliento del mismo Dios restaurará su vida. Ellos serán levantados de la tumba y su dolor desaparecerá, y regresarán a su tierra. El mensaje de Ezequiel habla a todos nosotros que conocemos de la profundidad de la desorientación, de la separación de los seres queridos y de una perdida profunda. Dios llevará nuestro dolor insoportable, y el espíritu de Dios ofrecerá nueva vida y esperanza.
