

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY

in Ordinary Time

Welcome to
St. Ann Catholic Church

*A*men, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Matthew 18:18

Dear friends of St. Ann,

The worst trends in the Church begin with the words, "you know what would be neat..."

An interesting thing happened in the last few weeks that has given an opportunity to reflect on our sacramental faith and the disciplines of the Sacraments in the life of the Church. On August sixth, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, with the approval of the Pope, issued a clarification about certain questions about the administration of Baptism. In particular, they clarified that it is not valid to alter the form of Baptism, "I Baptise you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," either with the form "we Baptise you..." or substituting functional names (creator, redeemer, sanctifier, or other variations) for the personal names Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The problem with variations of "we baptise" or baptism in the name of the community is that it is not most really the community or even the minister himself who Baptises, but Christ who Baptises through the person of the minister. Likewise a formula which replaces the revealed persons of the Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, with functional titles risks expressing a false faith or one that denies the revelation of three Persons in one God.

This caught attention in Michigan with the case of Fr. Matthew Hood, a personal acquaintance, who reviewed the video of his own baptism only to find that such an invalid form was used. As a consequence it was apparent that he had not, if fact, been validly baptised and therefore not validly Confirmed or Ordained a deacon or priest. Thus many Sacraments he had seemingly celebrated in three years of ministry, especially Confessions, Anointings, and Mass, were called into question. All of this because of the improvisation of the deacon responsible for his baptism. Fr. Matthew has since been validly

Baptised, Confirmed, and Ordained.

To some this all seems like hair splitting or legalism. What do the words matter, as long as the intention is right? This indeed reflects a movement of thought very prevalent in our culture that places subjective experience or intention above objective rules. This relativistic view makes of reality what I wish it to be. The problem in this and in improvisation in the Sacraments in general is that the Sacraments are a gift of Christ, not the creative work of His ministers, and in doing as the Church has directed, the ministers of the Church make clear their intention to do what the Church does. This pattern of "creativity" in the rites of the Church, or even the practice of substituting one's preferred expression for that given in the rites, has been an ongoing problem in the generations since the Second Vatican Council concluded in 1965. A spirit of experimentation and a false notion of inculturation have prevailed in certain parts of the Church, obscuring the Communion we have in Christ.

The faithful have the right to have confidence that when they come to the Church for the Sacraments or be instructed in the Gospel they will indeed receive what Christ has entrusted to the Church to hand on. For this reason, I have made a point in my own approach to be diligent to follow the pattern of the longstanding practices of the Church. I have labored to be guided by two questions in these things: 1. What does the instruction say? 2. What does the tradition say (how have we always done this)?

Ultimately adherence to the rites of the Church expresses our communion with and in Christ and our fidelity in handing on the gospel entrusted to us.

May Christ, the good preserve the Church in faith and keep united the flock of His disciples.

Rev. James Richardson

The True, the Good, and the Beautiful -Three Marks of an Authentic Catholic Education

What does it actually mean to teach beauty to students in a Classical education? St. Augustine sums it up most poignantly in his book, Confessions as he reflects on the events of his life when he found himself farthest away from God and the way that God continued to pursue and to draw him back:

"Late have I loved you, Beauty so old and so new; late have I loved you. And see, you were within and I was in the external world and sought you there, and in my unlovely state I plunged into those lovely created things which you made. You were with me, and I was not with you. The lovely things kept me far from you, though if they did not have their existence in you, they had no existence at all. You called and cried out loud and shattered my deafness. You were radiant and resplendent, you put to flight my blindness. You were fragrant, and I drew in my breath and now pant after you. I tasted you, and I feel but hunger and thirst for you. You touched me, and I am set on fire to attain the peace which is yours." ~Augustine, Confessions

God acts to draw us back in the very same ways today, very subtly, patiently, and always lovingly. God pursues us most clearly in nature through the beauty of His creation. As Augustine came to realize, the quest for Beauty is ultimately a quest for God. Young or old, it is our soul's natural inner longing to ascent to divine life with God. At Light of Christ Academy, we strive to help our students recognize this inner longing for God and His pursuing action in their lives. We do this not only by designing beauty in the physical environment but also by offering abundant opportunities for prayer and contemplation and by planning thoughtful lessons that illustrate an uncomplicated and beautiful perspective of the world.

THE FORGE MEN'S GROUP

by Brant Pitre.

SAT | 8:00-9:00 am (2nd and 4th Saturdays)
In person and virtually as needed

This text shines light on the Last Supper by looking at it through Jewish eyes. It answers such questions such as what were the Jewish hopes for the Messiah and what did Jesus mean when he said, "This is my body...This is my blood"?

NEW BIBLE STUDY STARTING
The Bible Timeline

The Catholic Men's Fellowship group is inviting all men of the parish to participate in its upcoming study entitled "The Bible Timeline", a study program that takes you on a guided tour through salvation history in the Bible that uses scripture reading, discussion, and video materials. Presenter Jeff Cavins will show you how 14 of the Bible's narrative books tell the biblical story from beginning to end and give you the keys to understanding the amazing story woven throughout scripture. The study will begin on Saturday, October 10, 2020 and the group meets on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays each month from 6:30 -8:00 A.M. Cost is $35.95 for 1 year access. To purchase the study set for the course go to www.comcenter.com/product/ACEN-179846. AN INVITATION

From the St. Ann Respect Life Group

On Saturday, September 12, pro-life Americans throughout the country will gather at the gravesites of aborted babies and other memorial sites dedicated in their honor for the eighth annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children. Solemn vigils will be held at these sites to commemorate the more than 60 million children who have lost their lives to legal abortion since 1973, and to remind our society of the humanity of the unborn child. Please join us for the memorial service in our community.

Fr. James will conduct the service. There's a memorial stone near the mausoleum dedicated to children who have died that the caretaker says has always been understood to be a pro-life memorial. Please join us.

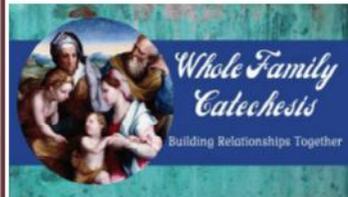

SAT | SEPT 12 | 10:30 A.M. | Mt. Olivet Cemetery Mausoleum

2003 Mt. Olivet Road, Kalamazoo

(diokzoo.org/mt-olivet-diocesan-catholic-cemetery)

This will be an outdoor event, adjacent to the chapel. Chairs will be provided, but please attend with a readiness for the day's weather. Please note this is not a Mass but a prayer service that will last approximately 30-45 minutes.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION REGISTRATION: 2020-2021

Register for Religious Education at St Ann's parish! We will continue to educate the whole family in Christ with whole family catechesis (3rd-8th grade) and good shepherd in class (3-7 year olds). December (the start of the liturgical year). Register at: bit.ly/3fMokQV Q/A: bobbyk@stannaugusta.org

ST. ANN ATRIUM YOUTUBE CHANNEL

The St. Ann Atrium now has a YouTube channel! Many families with children aged 3 to 7 want to return to the classroom with other children, but we know not everyone wants to. That is why we are making YouTube videos so children can come into the atrium and follow along on their own schedule. Yet anyone can see the videos: either by searching "St Ann atrium YouTube" into a search engine or going to <https://stannaugusta.org/youth-faith-formation>

NEW KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS E-MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Men of St. Ann Parish, if you ever wanted to make a difference in the world by joining the Knights of Columbus, now is the time. The new E-Memberships program is now available which provides the same benefits offered to Knights around the world and for a limited time we will waive the membership dues of $35 for the first year.

Join other men from our Parish by taking advantage of this great program. Just go to kofc.org/joinus and enter the code MCGIVNEY2020.

Our founder (Father McGivney) was faced with a pandemic in the 1880s, as we are today. In the face of that pandemic, in 1882, he founded the Knights of Columbus to help provide security and spiritual growth for Catholic families, & we continue to grow today.

Please take this opportunity to join us! Contact Mark Gentilia with questions at mark.gentilia@gmail.com or 269-760-3131.
