ARCHDIOCESE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Program Needs Program Needs

St. Francis Food Pantry is in need of:

- Canned fruit
- Canned veggies

Homeless Family Services is in need of

- Cleaning Supplies
- Shower Curtain

Brother Francis Shelter is in need of

- Bike Locks

We are slowly reintroducing some positions in our volunteer program. We are following all safety measures and precautions. Volunteers are screened for COVID at the beginning of each shift and required to wear a mask and keep 6 ft distance between themselves and others.

CSS is in need of 3 volunteers on Fridays from 10:00 am – 2:00 pm to help organize in kind donations. This would be an ongoing position and it would be wonderful if volunteers could commit to coming in one day a week likely until end of July. Contact Molly at mcornish@cssalaska.org if interested

SFH could use 2 to 3 volunteers on Tuesdays and Thursdays to help pack boxes, from 9:30am – 1:00 pm. Contact Bronwen at bnicholls@cssalaska.org if interested.

JUNE 21, 2020 12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Readings: Jeremiah 20:10–13, Psalm 69:8–10, 14, 17, 33–35
Romans 5:12–15, Matthew 10:26–33

Our commitment to Christ will be put to the test. We will hear whispered warnings and denunciations, as Jeremiah does in today's First Reading. Even so-called friends will try to trap us and trip us up. For His sake we will bear insults and be made outcasts—even in our own homes, we hear in today's Psalm. As Jeremiah tells us, we must expect that God will challenge our faith in Him, and probe our minds and hearts, to test the depths of our love. "Do not be afraid," Jesus assures us three times in today's Gospel. Though He may permit us to suffer for our faith, our Father will never forget or abandon us. As Jesus assures us today, everything unfolds in His Providence, under His watchful gaze—even the falling of the tiniest sparrow to the ground. Each one of us is precious to Him. Steadfast in this faith, we must resist the tactics of Satan. He is the enemy who seeks the ruin of our soul in Gehenna, or hell.

We are to seek God, as the Psalmist says. Zeal for the Lord's house, for the heavenly kingdom of the Father, should consume us, as it consumed Jesus (see John 2:17). As Jesus bore the insults of those who blasphemed God, so should we (see Romans 15:3).

By the gracious gift of himself, Jesus bore the transgressions of the world, Paul tells us in today's Epistle. In rising from the dead, He has shown us that God rescues the life of the poor, that He does not spurn His own when they are in distress. In His great mercy, He will turn toward us, as well. He will deliver us from the power of the wicked.

That is why we proclaim His name from the housetops, as Jesus tells us. That is why we sing praise and offer thanksgiving in every Eucharist. We are confident in Jesus' promise—that we who declare our faith in Him before others will be remembered before our heavenly Father.—Scott Hahn

Miscellaneous Items

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION— “To pray is not to escape from history and the problems that it presents. On the contrary, it is to choose to face reality not on our own, but with the strength that comes from on high, the strength of truth and love, which have their ultimate source in God.” — Pope St. John Paul II

The Mother of God Chapel is now open Tuesday through Sunday from 1 pm to 4:30 pm. With exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Please see the website for details. You may have a 30 minute time slot, but is a first come, first serve situation. You must follow the posted social distancing requirements. A face mask to cover the mouth and nose must be worn at all times. No exceptions. The chapel will be closed once an hour for 15 minutes for a thorough disinfecting.

Please check the website/Facebook/My parish App for upcoming changes to Mass opportunities. They will be posted when more is known.

MASS IN THE FIELD

† Bring lawn chairs or blankets (lawn chairs preferred).

† Mass will still be live-streamed on Facebook.
† Please bring a facemask.
† Please pass the word along to those who don't do "tech."

Weather permitting—(Otherwise streamed Mass)

Communion will be after Mass until 12:00 pm

Hi my St. Andrew Parish Family— We have a special someone who will celebrate his 80th birthday on July 3rd, our own Archbishop Schwietz. With circumstances as they are we will not be able to have a big celebration we had hoped to have. With Father Arthur's permission we would like to instead have a mass mailing of birthday cards and wishes to him, to let him know just how much he is loved and means to our St. Andrew Parish Family. With that said— see what your family might do to show that lov.-A card with everyone's signature, homemade cards, drawings by the children, notes of thanks and well wishes, etc.— use your imagination. I apologize if you get the message a few times since we are spreading the word through ministries/groups, but wanted to get the word out to as parishioners as soon as possible. Hope you and yours are all well and safe.

Thanks in advance for helping with this fun project, Renee Henry and the Parish Life Ministry

YOUTH & CATECHESIS WEEKEND

One Bread, One Body
2020 Annual Catholic Appeal

Did you know?: 191 Years

Our Catholic schools have provided a combined total of 191 years of Catholic education. Can you guess which school has been open longest? (answer below)

2,000+ Students

Last year, there were over 2,000 students enrolled in Faith Formation programs across the Archdiocese of Anchorage. Nearly 300 catechists volunteered to serve them.

372 + 239 Sacraments

Last year, 372 students received their First Communion, and 239 students received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Congrats on this important part of your faith journey!

15% = 5 Parishes

Only 15% of our parishes (5 of them) have a full-time staff member dedicated to youth and young adult ministry. Most have part-time paid or volunteer youth ministry leaders.

100, 12, 80, 45, 29

Participants from our Archdiocese at each event: 100 attended the Alaska Catholic Youth Conference, 12 attended Just5Days, 80 attended World Youth Day, 45 attended a mission pre-trip in Costa Rica, and 29 attended the National Catholic Youth Conference.
