CORPUS CHRISTI JUNE 19, 2022

Readings: Genesis 14:18–20, Psalm 110:1–4
1 Corinthians 11:23–26, Luke 9:11–17

At the dawn of salvation history, God revealed our future in figures. That's what's going on in today's First Reading: a priest-king comes from Jerusalem (see Psalm 76:3), offering bread and wine to celebrate the victory of God's beloved servant, Abram, over his foes.

By his offering, Melchizedek bestows God's blessings on Abram. He is showing us, too, how one day we will receive God's blessings and in turn "bless God"—how we will give thanks to Him for delivering us from our enemies, sin and death. As Paul recalls in today's Epistle, Jesus transformed the sign of bread and wine, making it a sign of His body and blood, through which God bestows upon us the blessings of His "new covenant."

Jesus is "the priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek," that God, in today's Psalm, swears will rule from Zion, the new Jerusalem (see Hebrews 6:20–7:3).

By the miracle of loaves and fishes, Jesus in today's Gospel, again prefigures the blessings of the Eucharist.

Notice that He takes the bread, blesses it, breaks it, and gives it to the Twelve. You find the precise order and words in the Last Supper (see Luke 22:19) and in His celebration of the Eucharist on the first Easter night (see Luke 24:30).

The Eucharist fulfills the offering of Melchizedek. It is the daily miracle of the heavenly high priesthood of Jesus.

It is a priesthood He conferred upon the Apostles in ordering them to feed the crowd, in filling exactly twelve baskets with leftover bread—in commanding them on the night He was handed over:

"Do this in remembrance of Me."

Through His priests He still feeds us in "the deserted place" of our earthly exile.

And by this sign He pledges to us a glory yet to come. For as often as we share in His body and blood, we proclaim His victory over death, until He comes again to make His victory our own.—Scott Hahn

LANDSCAPE LEADER—St. Andrew is in need of a volunteer who has a passion for gardening. This involves watering the St. Andrew landscaped and exterior areas, fertilizing, pruning where necessary, etc. It also entails enlisting volunteers to maintain specific areas throughout the summer months. Please contact Tamea Isham at 688-3671.

ADOPT A BED—The summer season is here and it's your opportunity to volunteer to tend a landscaped bed at our church. Designated volunteers will take care of the outlining areas of tall grasses, etc., and also the rocky areas in the parking lots up to two feet away from the tall spruce trees. Your help is needed to weed close to and inside the trees. The vegetation close to the church building is dense and requires more attention.

Family members, individuals and groups are encouraged to select a manageable area to keep clear of trash and weeds. You need to plan to spend at least one hour a week on your space in order for it to always look well cared for. There is a landscape display in the Narthex with areas to adopt. Please sign up for a bed and provide a contact number. Thank you for your support. Tamea Isham, Landscape Chair, 907-688-3671.
