15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME JULY 13, 2022

Readings: Deuteronomy 30:10–14
Psalm 69:14, 17, 30–31, 33–34, 36–37
Colossians 1:15–20, Luke 10:25–37

We are to love God and our neighbor with all the strength of our being, as the scholar of the Law answers Jesus in this week's Gospel.

This command is nothing remote or mysterious—it's already written in our hearts, in the book of Sacred Scripture. “You have only to carry it out,” Moses says in this week's First Reading.

Jesus tells His interrogator the same thing: “Do this and you will live.”

The scholar, however, wants to know where he can draw the line. That's the motive behind his question, “Who is my neighbor?”

In his compassion, the Samaritan in Jesus' parable reveals the boundless mercy of God, Who came down to us when we were fallen in sin, close to dead, unable to pick ourselves up.

Jesus is “the image of the invisible God,” this week's Epistle tells us. In Him, the love of God has come very near to us. By the “blood of His Cross”—by bearing His neighbors' sufferings in His own body, being Himself stripped and beaten and left for dead—He saved us from the bonds of sin and reconciled us to God and to one another.

Like the Samaritan, He pays the price for us, heals the wounds of sin, pours out on us the oil and wine of the sacraments, and entrusts us to the care of His Church until He comes back for us.

Because His love has known no limits, ours cannot either. We are to love as we have been loved, to do for others what He has done for us, joining all things together in His Body, the Church.

We are to love like the singer of this week's Psalm—like those whose prayers have been answered, like those whose lives have been saved, who have known the time of His favor, have seen God in His great mercy turn toward us.

This is the love that leads to eternal life, the love Jesus commands today of the scholar and of each of us: “Go and do likewise.”—Scott Hahn

REGISTERED?—Have you registered in the parish? It only takes a minute. Go to our website <https://aksaintandrews.org/parish-registration> or pick up a paper form in the Narthex. We get many requests for baptisms and letters to be God parents, registrations for Faith Formation, etc. Unless you have actually registered in the parish it makes it hard to accommodate the requests. We are parish with many families who move in and out. We would love to know so we can welcome you and/or say goodbye.

SECOND COLLECTION—Next weekend we will hold a second collection for the Church in Latin America and the Church in Africa.

- The USCCB-Church in Africa program provides grants to finance pastoral projects including outreach programs, Catholic schools, evangelization, and education of clergy and lay ministers. Our solidarity is necessary to help the "salt of the Earth" Church in Africa realize its potential as a "light of the world."
- The Collection for the Church in Latin America is an opportunity to share your faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean. Please be generous to the Collection!

LANDSCAPE LEADER —St. Andrew is in need of a volunteer who has a passion for gardening. This involves watering the St. Andrew landscaped and exterior areas, fertilizing, pruning where necessary, etc. It also entails enlisting volunteers to maintain specific areas throughout the summer months. Please contact Tamea Isham at 688-3671.

ADOPT A BED—The summer season is here and it’s your opportunity to volunteer to tend a landscaped bed at our church. Designated volunteers will take care of the outlining areas of tall grasses, etc., and also the rocky areas in the parking lots up to two feet away from the tall spruce trees. Your help is needed to weed close to and inside the trees. The vegetation close to the church building is dense and requires more attention.

Family members, individuals and groups are encouraged to select a manageable area to keep clear of trash and weeds. You need to plan to spend at least one hour a week on your space in order for it to always look well cared for. There is a landscape display in the Narthex with areas to adopt. Please sign up for a bed and provide a contact number. Thank you for your support. Tamea Isham, Landscape Chair, 907-688-3671.
