31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME OCT 30, 2022

Readings: Wisdom 11:22-12:2,
Psalm 145:12, 8-11, 13-14, 2 Thessalonians
1:11-2:2, Luke 19:1-10

Our Lord is a lover of souls, the Liturgy shows us today. As we sing in today's Psalm, He is slow to anger and compassionate toward all that He has made. In His mercy, our First Reading tells us, He overlooks our sins and ignorance, giving us space that we might repent and not perish in our sinfulness (see Wisdom 12:10; 2 Peter 3:9).

In Jesus, He has become the Savior of His children, coming Himself to save the lost (see Isaiah 63:8-9; Ezekiel 34:16).

In the figure of Zacchaeus in today's Gospel, we have a portrait of a lost soul. He is a tax collector, by profession a "sinner" excluded from Israel's religious life. Not only that, he is a "chief tax collector." Worse still, he is a rich man who has apparently gained his living by fraud.

But Zacchaeus' faith brings salvation to his house. He expresses his faith in his fervent desire to "see" Jesus, even humbling himself to climb a tree just to watch Him pass by. While those of loftier religious stature react to Jesus with grumbling, Zacchaeus receives Him with joy.

Zacchaeus is not like the other rich men Jesus meets or tells stories about (see Luke 12:16-21; 16:19-31; 18:18-25). He repents, vowing to pay restitution to those he has cheated and to give half of his money to the poor. By his humility he is exalted, made worthy to welcome the Lord into his house. By his faith, he is justified, made a descendant of Abraham (see Romans 4:16-17). As He did last week, Jesus is again using a tax collector to show us the faith and humility we need to obtain salvation.

We are also called to seek Jesus daily with repentant hearts. And we should make Paul's prayer in today's Epistle our own: that God might make us worthy of His calling, that by our lives we might give glory to the name of Jesus.—Scott Hahn

REVIVAL SUNDAY CHILI COOK OFF!—Our next Revival Sunday is November 6th right after the 10am service. Get your taste buds ready! If you would like to help provide some chili and/or sides for Revival Sunday, check out our sign up genius online or contact Meg Rosario at megerosario@gmail.com. There are A LOT of slots so remember to keep scrolling down on the website to see all open items. <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/70A094EA8A629A7FD0-revival>. Above all, whether or not you are a budding chili chef, bring yourself with your readiness to grow closer with your parish family. We look forward to seeing you as we continue to build faith and fellowship at St. Andrew parish.

PIES FOR LIFE! —Calling all bakers! Heart to Heart Pregnancy Resource Center is seeking homemade pies for its annual Thanksgiving Pie Pickup fundraiser on Nov. 22. Many families look forward to this fun tradition and count on it for fresh pies for Thanksgiving dinner.

Homemade pies are preferred, but if you know a bakery with tasty pies, those are also appreciated. Donated pies may be dropped off at Heart to Heart Pregnancy Resource Center (next to Subway in downtown Eagle River) either Monday evening (6-8 p.m.), or at the center Tuesday starting at 9 a.m. Prizes will awarded for Prettiest Pie, Worth the Weight (most tempting), Far Out Flavor (most unique) and Punniest Piemaker (best original flavor title).

Enjoy fresh hot coffee from Jitters while visiting the pregnancy center, and see how Heart to Heart is serving families in our community! Pie Pickup event will run 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Tuesday. Suggested donation is $20 per pie. Thank you for supporting Heart to Heart Pregnancy Resource Center!

URBAN HEARTS is an apostolate that was started by the young adult community of St Andrew's. The mission serves the homeless in our community through the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. If you are interested in supporting our mission, now is a great time to get involved because your donation goes twice as far. A generous donor has agreed to match all funds donated from now until the end of the year up to $20,000. We humbly ask you to consider supporting us in this very unique campaign so that the good work our missionaries do can continue into 2023 and beyond. If you'd like to learn more, contact Josef Rutz at 907-863-7889. You can donate at urbanhearts.org/donate, or send a check made out to Urban Hearts to PO Box 772175, Eagle River AK 99577

AMERICAN HERITAGE GIRLS —Join the American Heritage Girls in supporting Operation Christmas Child. We are collecting items to fill shoeboxes for children affected by war, poverty, natural disaster, famine and disease around the world. To participate, drop donated items in the labeled box at St Andrew, or to make a monetary donation email ahgtroopak1130@gmail.com or call/text Spring at 907-230-9223. Items needed include: small toys, personal care products (comb, toothbrush...), school supplies, clothing articles. For further details see collection box; donations due by Nov 10th.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE —The fall campaign of the 40 Days for Life worldwide prayer vigil is going on now. Volunteers are praying outside abortion facilities worldwide 24 hours a day through Nov. 6. Our goal is for prayer volunteers from St. Andrew parish to cover Mondays at the vigil, in front of Planned Parenthood near Tudor & Lake Otis. For more info about the 40 Days for Life movement and full details about the local campaign, visit 40daysfor-life.com/en/anchorage or the display in the Narthex. To schedule an hour of prayer at the vigil in Anchorage, please see the signup sheet in the Narthex and/or sign up on the 40 days website.
