Message From Mr. Brown

Hello Wildcats!

I know I say this every week, can you believe.....Its going to be November 1st tomorrow? Time sure flies especially in the world we live in today. Our students are busier than any in our history. When I see what they are involved in on a daily basis I sometimes cringe. Let's help them find time to just "be a kid" here and there.

I guess I am getting to the age where I can use the phrase, "Back in my day!" However, there is some validity to that phrase.

Monday starts a new quarter. Challenge your student to rise above any challenges from Qtr 1 or continue on the successful path they began the year on!
