Message From Mr. Brown

Hello Wildcats!

JC Penny catalog! If you are old enough, that statement will make you smile! If not, ask someone just a little older than you. They will light up and tell you about it.

I love being in school this time of year. The excitement and wonder in the students' faces is uplifting. It helps me appreciate this time of year and keeps me young. It also reminds me that for many, this is a tough time of year and may be more stress than joy. For them, I wish they could go back to a youthful time when life was easier and their biggest stress may be which cookie do I eat.

We all have hopes and dreams at Christmas. It may not be that train set or doll you always wanted but the wish still is there. It is my hope that all of your hopes, dreams and wishes come true this holiday season!
