PARISH PRAYER

Loving Father, You gather us together as a Roman Catholic family, to thank and praise You in shared faith and lived love.

May we be drawn more completely into the life of Your Holy Spirit and hear Your personal call for each of us, helping us to reveal Your presence in this world. Inspired by Your love and moved by the example of our patron, St. Francis, let us be instruments of peace, to sow love where there is hatred, pardon where injury, faith where doubt, hope where despair, light where darkness, joy where sadness. Knowing that it is only in giving that we receive, in pardoning that we are pardoned, in dying that we are born to eternal life, we make this prayer through Your Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ. Amen.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We are a welcoming Christian community in New Orleans that is centered in the Eucharist. We are committed to the teachings of Jesus Christ, the traditions of the Roman Catholic Church and the dignity of human life. We are a family that strives to learn and share our faith by living the Beatitudes and by reconciling ourselves with God and one another.

The Ministry of the Word of God

Archbishop Aymond will celebrate the Mass of Institution of Read for The Diaconate Formation Group of 2022. Mr. Robert Moore, our parishioner, is among those the Archbishop will institute at Infant Jesus of Prague Church in Harvey on Thursday, August 27, 2020. Each of the candidates will participate in the Lector training workshop offered by the Office of Worship. I have met with Bobby to discuss his service in the Ministry of Reader. Beginning September 5 and 6, 2020 he will serve as reader at all the masses one weekend a month then alternating masses on the other weekends. This ministry is not new to Bobby; he served as one of our lectors before he began his Diaconate formation three years ago. Bobby is a fulltime middle school English teacher at St. Andrew's Episcopal School in New Orleans. The next step in his formation will take place when the Archbishop welcomes him into the Ministry of Acolyte. When you see Bobby at one of our weekend masses, offer him and his wife Rosalyn your words of congratulations and prayerful support that he will complete his formation as a permanent deacon in 2022.

Another reflection on the Ministry of the Word occurred when a man came to the Scripture class seeking not only answers but ammunition. His Protestant friends were telling him that Peter was not the first pope. They had Scripture passages to back up their claims. He was sure there was something in the Bible he could use to counteract their arguments. Now the man was asking the instructor for three other Scripture passages he could use that would trump theirs! He was a bit disappointed when the instructor said that's not the way Catholics read Scripture – how he had wanted the equivalent of three aces to play during the next go-around with his Protestant interlocutors!

The story in today's gospel reading from Matthew is a favorite in Catholic-Protestant dialogue or even debates on the role of Peter and the development of the papacy. But the papacy is a long way from the setting of this particular story. Even so, Matthew is informing, or reminding his audience that Peter was a spokesperson for the group, confessed Jesus as Christ, but even this was not due to his insight but from a gift of the Father.

As Catholics, we read Scripture holistically, not cherry-picking verses from here and there, and then applying them in a context divorced from their own. The Catholic approach to Scripture seeks to understand the context in which the book, letter, or verse was written; the intent of the author, as much as possible; and how it corresponds to other Scripture. If we are looking for Scripture verses to use in theological debate with other Christians, we are playing the wrong game.

There is a saying about the Bible attributed to St. Jerome, "Familiarity with Scripture is familiarity with Christ." Though Catholics have not had a long history of being familiar with Scripture, there are more and more Bible studies available today online and in parishes, from university level to adult faith formation. Commentaries abound and even The Catholic Study Bible and the New American Bible is available for free with its footnotes on the USCCB website. Since Vatican II, the Church has encouraged Catholics to become familiar with Scripture, "the soul of theology".

Jesus himself knew Scripture and often cited it. We would do well to do the same. When we learn about the Bible, read footnotes, examine commentaries, and pray with the text, we likely put to death ignorance and instead raise to life knowledge and understanding. To live the paschal mystery is to become familiar with Scripture, not so we can cite passages in theological debates, but so that the wisdom of sacred writer washes over us as waves on a beach. Over time, the waves shape the beach as the Scriptures shape us. Let us live the paschal mystery by embracing familiarity with Scripture, for in so doing, we will become familiar with Christ himself.

We invite you to join us this weekend for one of our masses either in church or via live stream of the Sunday 9:30 am mass. We gather around the table of the Word and the table of the Eucharist. In the Liturgy of the Word the homily breaks open the Word of God and how it connects with our lives in this world and our lives in the world to come. The homily serves as our moment of reflection, instruction, exhortation, and consolation. The scriptures frame the homily for understanding our relationship with God; for teaching us about how to grow in His grace; for encouraging us to hold fast to the faith; and for offering us comfort when we fail. A good homily will always challenge and help; it will always inform and direct; it will always bring Scripture to bear on the real lives of God's people. As the Body of Christ, the Church, we participate in the divine life through the sacraments, personal prayer, good works, and by hearing and doing the Word of God. After feasting on the Word of God and reflecting on how it impacts our life of faith, we then make a worthy offering of the Body and Blood of Christ, food for the journey and eternal life.

In making a reservation for mass, please observe the guidelines in this bulletin and on our parish website. If you are not a registered parishioner, use this occasion to be among the members of the flock of St. Francis of Assisi. You can register on our website www.stfrancisuptown.com

For those parishioners we cannot accommodate in the church or who are fearful to gather with us, Archbishop Aymond has given permission to distribute Holy Communion after mass outdoors. He strongly suggested that we not give Holy Communion to people in vehicles. He recommends that we do so outside where people can form a communion line and observe social distancing. Therefore, this weekend after each mass, weather permitting, I will be available to distribute Holy Communion in the front lawn of the rectory. I suggest that as you approach me to receive the Body of Christ you pray the Lord's Prayer, the Our Father.

Please remember that Archbishop Aymond has dispensed the people of the Archdiocese from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. If someone is vulnerable and not feeling well, that should not celebrate Mass in church with other people. Baptisms, Weddings and funerals is limited to 100 worshippers. This number will increase gradually.

We continue to live stream the 9:30 am Mass on Sunday from church. Daily mass in church. Monday, Wednesday through Friday 8:30 am and Tuesday at 6:00 pm. No reservation is necessary for daily mass. We will no longer live stream daily mass.

General Guidelines for Mass Attendance: To sign up to attend Mass:

<https://www.stfrancisuptown.com/mass-rsvp>

Entering & Leaving: All entrances are open. Church pews are marked and roped off. When Mass has ended, please do not gather in groups outside of church or in the parking lot. Continue to maintain social distancing.

During Mass: Wear a mask during Mass aside from receiving Communion. Be mindful of social distancing and maintain 6 feet of distance from others at all times. For our weekend Masses, a worship aid will be available at the entrances. After Mass, leave it in your pew. You may place your regular offering for support and other collections in the baskets in the center aisle and side doors. The Offertory procession is omitted. We can express the sign of peace by means of a smile and/or nod of the head.

Reception of Holy Communion: Bring hand sanitizer to use before receiving Communion. During the distribution of Holy Communion, form a single line and observe the social distancing blue lines on the floor of the aisles. We ask everyone to receive Holy Communion in the hand rather than on the tongue. You will receive the Body of Christ in the form of bread only. When approaching the priest or Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, place your hand flatly atop the other and fully extend your arm toward the priest or minister who will place the Host on your hand in a manner to avoid any contact with your hand.

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

A Stewardship Moment

Saint Paul reminds us today in his letter to the Romans that the ultimate origin of everything is God. Since everything comes from God, we are God's own. We can never put God in our debt. There is absolutely no negotiating with God. Every breath we take is a gift. Every good deed we perform is grace. Good stewards realize they are created and called to make the beauty, greatness, compassion and justice of God and his gifts known throughout the world. The stewardship question for us is how willing are we to embrace this call, acknowledge our dependence on God and give our lives over to him completely for this purpose?

Breaking Open the Readings

First Reading

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
Isaiah 22:19-23

Accepting Responsibility

If you have ever received the responsibility somebody else once had, you know the rush of emotions that can come with a transfer of authority. Maybe it was a job you worked hard for. Maybe you were chosen for a task you never envisioned you would do. But there you are, hoping to fulfill the expectations somebody has for you and the work.

According to Isaiah, this experience happened to Eliakim, son of Hilkiah. He replaced Shebna as master of the palace. God did not like the job that Shebna was doing. (If God is your supervisor, you had better do the work well.) Isaiah says that God thrust Shebna from office and put Eliakim in his place, dressed him in Shebna's robe, girded him with Shebna's sash, and gave him Shebna's authority. God really did not like Shebna's work.

God gave one more sign of authority. God placed the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder. You have heard of getting the key to the city. Eliakim got the key to the nation.

When God gives us a responsibility, we may be part of a major transition. But if the work comes from God, we can assume the task with assurance.

Second Reading

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
Romans 11:33-36

Rich in Wisdom

We cannot completely figure God out. God dwells in ultimate mystery. We believe strongly in God's presence, and we experience this divine majesty in spiritual ways. But we do not understand it or fully grasp it.

God created with unending variety. Consider the many plants and flowers in bloom, the various animals that roam the earth, the fish that swim, and the birds that fly. Consider the differences in human beings alive today and in generations past. Consider the stars of the sky and the planets unseen. God's creativity knows no end.

In the course of our lives we sometimes question God's judgments, but we also stand in awe at our blessings. God has given us the gift of life in the midst of a wondrous creation. God has given us freedom to choose our actions, to develop good friends, and to pray in faith.

Life brings its challenges, but in the end, all of life is in God's hands. St. Paul tells the Romans, "Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways!"

We cannot completely figure God out. We do not always know why God creates the good and tolerates the evil we see. But it is not ours to know. It is not ours to understand. It is ours to be in awe. It is ours to give glory. It is God's to be rich in wisdom.
