Please Take Note . . .

The word Epiphany comes from a Greek word epiphanein which means showing, appearance, or revelation. Although this Feast began in the eastern Church, it has been celebrated in the western Church since the end of the 4th century. Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany as the time the magi visited the Christ child. The magi were given the names of Melchior, Casper, and Balthazar. They offered gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh, traditional symbols of homage in the East. Since the middle ages, it has been a tradition to bless homes, by marking the doorways with the initials of the magi and the current year 20+C+M+B+18.

THE EPIPHANY

We Celebrate Our Giftedness

On the official solemnity of the Epiphany, the Sunday after New Year's, we celebrate the gifts and talents each family member can bring to the Lord; gifts more valuable than the Magi's gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Make a paper place mat for each person, and have the others write on it things that are special and lovable about that person. Use them at your main meal and have the family read aloud the gifts others see in them. Then each can name something about your family that makes it special and beloved in God's eyes.

EPIPHANY 2018

Sunday, January 7, 2018

Traditionally, the Feast of the Epiphany is a time when many families bless their homes.To bless your own home is a very simple process. The first thing that you do is take a piece of blessed chalk. All of the chalk is located in baskets by the doors as you leave church.

The next step is to gather your family by the prime outer door or the outer door that you use most. Begin the blessing by asking the Lord to bless your home.

Use these words or make up your own:

Good and gracious God
of Heaven and Earth,
You revealed Your Son Jesus
to every nation
by the guidance of a star.
Bless this home, all who visit here,
and all who come to visit.
Fill them with the light of Christ,
that their concern for others
may reflect Your love and goodness.
We ask this through Christ Our Lord.
Amen.

Then a designated member of the family uses the blessed chalk to write the following over the main outer door.

20 C M B 18

C, M, B are the initials of the three kings: Caspar, Melchoir, Balthazar, and are also the first letters of the Latin prayer, Christus mansionem benedictat, "May Christ bless the house!"

The ceremony concludes with the entire family saying the Lord's Prayer together. If the family desires, they can continue the blessing throughout the inner doors of the house by using the blessed chalk and drawing a cross on any inner door they wish. When all are finished using the chalk, simply bury it in the ground outside the main door or in an indoor plant.

We pray that 2018 will be a year of blessing for not only your house, but for all who dwell within it. May the love of Jesus, rich as it is, dwell in your hearts and your homes.

Anchor House Thank You

Dear Friends at Saint Ann's Church:

On behalf of the runaway, homeless, neglected, and aging out youth that Anchor House serves, thank you so much for the generous donation of Holiday gifts, toiletries, and food that you made to Anchor House. The items were used to make the holidays special for our youth and families. Our programs provide emergency shelter and residential services that provide food, clothing, a safe environment, crisis intervention, individual, family, and group counseling. We help our youth to build a support system, gain the life skills they need to be successful, address physical and mental health issues, learn how to advocate for themselves and plan for a brighter future. These services could not be accomplished without generous and caring donors like you. Your donations are part of that support system, breaking the cycle of homelessness, and helping the youth build a better life for tomorrow.

Thank you for supporting our mission to work with homeless, runaway, abused, aging out, and at risk youth to enable them to utilize their strengths and the support of their families and communities in order to ensure a stronger future. We appreciate your ongoing support and wish you a wonderful holiday season and a Happy New Year!
