Dear Beloved Brothers and Sisters,

How are you? Welcome back! I know that you were a little disappointed about the outcome of the game, but remember this is just the beginning of the season. Ok? Stay strong and hopeful. I would like to know that despite this setback, you had a great week and that Jesus ordered your every step throughout the week. Do you remember which weekend is this? Yes, the weekend where we have gathered as a family to enjoy our annual picnic. I truly hope that you are going to have a great time. So, I wish you an enjoyable picnic.

This weekend's Gospel is about stewardship. Yes, God gives us freedom to live our lives, and to exercise our stewardship as we continue to follow Jesus. Indeed, Jesus reminds us that we too will have to give an account to God when it comes to our stewardship. We are also challenged to use our talents and gifts reminding ourselves that if we are trustworthy in small things, we will be entrusted with big things. Let us continue to ask Jesus to help us to be good stewards as we continue to respond to our calling.

Again, I thank you from the bottom of my heart for responding so positively to my appeal regarding the sale of the drawdown tickets. Indeed, I continue to let you know that I have no worries because I know my Church family, and together, we will have a successful annual fundraiser for our parish.

My Church family, I wish you a week filled with many of God's blessings throughout the coming week

With love and admiration,
Yours truly

Very Rev. Oswald P. Pierre-Jules, Jr., S.S.J., V.F.
