A Message from the Pastor

Beloved Families and Friends;

I welcome you back . I would like to know that you had a great week. Have you been to parades? For the last two years the people of New Orleans could not celebrate Mardi Gras. As you enjoy and have fun, I humbly urge you to be very careful and prudent. Yes, the pandemic is still with us. Therefore, there is a need to be careful and vigilant. Please know that I will be keeping you in my thoughts and prayers throughout the Mardi Gras holidays.

I would like to take this time to thank you for being so understanding about the whole bulletin situation. Again, we apologize about that. In three days we will begin this year's Lenten season: a season which calls our attention to God's love for mankind and how He sent His son Jesus to take away our sins throughout His suffering on Calvary. I pray that you will have a very successful and productive Lenten season. Moreover, may the season help you and yours discover the meaning of the Cross. Indeed, Jesus made the sacrifice once and for all so that we may be saved as God's children.

Beloved friends, we give thanks to God and the Church for giving us such a rich and profitable season. Yes, Jesus made that journey for you and me so that we may realize the true meaning of His love and His sacrifice. Every year we have taken the journey with Jesus, a journey that at times seems to be difficult. However, Jesus never said that it was going to be easy. Indeed, Jesus has placed the Cross as the corner stone of discipleship. Furthermore, the son of God has reminded us and recalled our attention to remain focused on the prize, which is the Resurrection with Him. May this year's Lenten journey be a very good one for you , and may Jesus order your every step throughout the journey.

This weekend, which marks the end of this year's Black history month, may God continue to bless and lead the African American community not to mention black people everywhere. Indeed, many fought the battle so that every human being be considered as God's child and that God loves all His children without exception. Beloved friends, as a Faith community, and as a family, let us pray for the young men and women of our Church family so that they may realize the efforts and struggles our ancestors went through to give us such a rich and profound legacy. Yes, we will overcome together for indeed, together we are stronger.

Again, I wish you an upcoming Lenten season filled with joy, happiness, profound spirituality and many of God's blessings. May this year's Lenten journey remind us of the importance of perseverance as we carry the Cross with Jesus, because he taught us that the Cross leads to victory. Indeed, there is no Cross without victory and there is no Good Friday without Easter Sunday.

With deep and profound admiration, I remain yours truly and always Father Oswald Pierre Pierre-Jules, Jr., S.S.J. Your Pastor
