LUMEN CHRISTI Active MEMBERSHIP

Pillars: Being engaged in at least one volunteer ministry and be a faithful participant in Sunday Mass and Holy Days

These weekly Active Membership articles are written by LC parishioners, who are sharing their time and talent. We hope their words inspire you to embrace your active membership at LC to truly become "one family sharing the love and light of Christ."

The Scriptures this week of Wisdom, Hebrews, and Luke, have a central theme. Can you see it? Most times it is difficult to dig deep and see the commonality in all three, but this week they center on our growing relationship with God and with others in our community.

God speaks to His people and reassures them they are blessed to be chosen to be His own. As we know though, there were many challenging moments in biblical history where a new covenant had to be formed as people slowly walked away from the Almighty.

Scriptures tells us God's people are active personal agents for Him who are in personal relationship with each other and the community. This brings the question to us of: How are we involved in serving our community and with one another? Are we on the sidelines or on the field? Do we promote the community and are involved? Remember, all are welcome and that also means to participate in our active community. Bottom line, we need you to help us continue to grow this community of Christ in Lumen Christi.

The Holy Spirit does His work in us when we honor Our Lord by living the Sacramental life and bringing Christ to others by His very presence in us. Reconciliation, prayer, participation in the Liturgy, and receiving of the Eucharist only enhances our desire to serve. Wisdom and Hebrews today are perfect examples of obedience, worship, honor and faith. We can't serve others if we have work to do on ourselves. That not only applies to our parish community, but spills over to our family and professional work life.

God continues to give His abundance and love to all of us. Do we pass it forward to others so they too can be aware of the same gifts that God gives them? Active participation in building our relationship with Our Lord can only produce a natural giving to others. We are blessed to have an active, spiritual, and giving community in Lumen Christi. Remember, all are ALWAYS welcome.

Wash clothes in cold, full loads
Bonus points: Hang dry some of your laundry!

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC – BENEATH THE SURFACE

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Are You Talking to Me?

Last summer I was at the National Eucharistic Congress when Fr. Mike Schmitz delivered an impassioned call to repentance in his keynote address during an evening revival session. The crowd received his message with great enthusiasm. Their applause and the cheers shook the Lucas Oil Stadium.

The next night, Sr. Josephine Garrett took the stage and, in her address, got into the nitty-gritty of what it means to be a disciple, what it means to live repentance — or, as she so beautifully put it, to embrace the hunger.

And in doing so, she called back to the previous night's thunderous approval of Fr. Mike's message.

"When I heard you clapping when Father said we need repentance, I was worried you thought he was talking about your neighbor's repentance," she said. "He is not."

In other words: he's talking about your repentance.

We all love a message about The Right Thing To Do. We all love when a priest or a nun or any Catholic with a microphone gets up and talks about the truth. We rise to our feet and applaud.

And then, too often, we take a deep breath and walk to our car and forget all about it — because we think they were talking to someone else. You know...the others. The ones who need to hear it. The ones who aren't being vigilant.

In today's Gospel, Peter asks Jesus, "Is this parable [of the absent master] meant for us, or for everyone?" (Luke 12:41). And Jesus answers him with a question. In so many words, he says this: "Do you want it to be for you? Are you ready to hear it?"

Whoever we are. Wherever we're from. Whatever our life looks like. However we pray. He's talking to us.

Are we ready to hear him? ©LPi

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

Catholics who move to a new place of residence often wish to have their dwelling blessed, to call the favor and help of God upon all those who live in the house and all those who will enter it.

The Roman Ritual (Book of Blessings) provides two formats for house blessings: one during the Easter or Christmas season (specifically for the Epiphany) and one for Ordinary Time. Those who live in the home must be present for a house to be blessed. A priest, deacon or lay person can administer the blessing, although if a lay person does so they must use the rites accorded to lay ministers in the Roman Ritual.

A house blessing includes Scripture readings, intercessions and a prayer of blessing.
