Join us Tuesday Mornings for a 10 week bible study called Lectio: Peter with Dr. Timothy Gray through formed.org. This study will be September 16 - November 18 on Tuesdays from 9:15-10:45 AM in St. Cecilia Hall. Each week we will watch the video together, and then continue in reflection and discussion within our table groups.

- We plan to order the participant study guides by September 1, which will be $20/book preorder. Please register and let us know if you would like a study guide ordered for you.
- If you ordered a book: it will be available at the first class. You can pay online with the registration or bring cash or a check made out the Lumen Christi to the parish office or the first class.

About Lectio: Peter:

Cornerstone of Catholicism

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, classical art, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter that is immediately informative and relevant to our lives. After all, if Jesus could bring out the very best in someone like Peter, then there is hope for the rest of us.

HELLO, NEIGHBOR

Hello, Neighbor, a collaborative racial justice effort between All Saints, Holy Angels, and Lumen Christi, is hosting "Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread", an experiential, hands on learning series that seeks to address food insecurity in our communities. Hello, Neighbor chose to address this particular racial justice issue because while most people can agree that grocery costs are currently high, some families have been struggling with food insecurity for years. This struggle can be attributed to unjust practices in housing and employment, which have resulted in higher rates of poverty and food insecure families in our community.

Join us at All Saints Parish on Sunday, September 28 at 11 AM Mass, followed by a light lunch at 12:30 PM, and a presentation by the Milwaukee Food Council at 1 PM. In this third year of the Eucharistic Revival focused on mission, Hello, Neighbor invites you to be in communion and community with families in need. Registration opening next week!

JIM LUTHER NEW HOPE CENTER

Canned tuna, canned salmon, children's toothbrushes, small sized Kleenex (80-100 count), baby food, deodorant, small lotions (8-12oz size), small dish detergent, plastic grocery bags & used suitcases with rollers. Monetary donations are also accepted. Checks can be written to the Jim Luther New Hope Center. Volunteers are always needed on Tuesdays from 12 - 2:30 PM & Wednesdays from 3:30 - 6 PM. Call Kathy Saiia with any questions at (262) 242-1644.

CREATION CARE CORNER: ONE SIMPLE ACT®

Avoid using disposable plastic bags, such as shopping bags, Ziploc bags, etc.

The EPA estimates that between 500 billion and 1 trillion bags are used annually and over 99% of those are landfilled or end up as litter on the way to the landfill. Use reusable bags and containers instead.

LUMEN CHRISTI Active MEMBERSHIP

Pillars: Being engaged in at least one volunteer ministry

These weekly Active Membership articles are written by LC parishioners, who are sharing their time and talent. We hope their words inspire you to embrace your active membership at LC to truly become "one family sharing the love and light of Christ."

Jeremiah is known as a prophet who was not popular in his own time. In fact, in our first reading, he's tossed down a cistern by the princes of Judah. Why? Because he was spreading God's message, but an unpopular one. Jesus speaks in the Gospel of wanting to be a source of division in the world, even within families. This seems an odd opinion for the Prince of Peace. But the two passages are related; we must speak and act out Christ's message even at a cost. This truth has always had opposition from the world—but we are called to make good trouble.

We speak out for life in all stages and forms. We support the widow and the orphan. We welcome the stranger and visit the sick and the prisoner. We feed the hungry and shelter the homeless.

A good way to act this out is to participate in one or more of the ministries of the parish. We can be united with other parishioners in our charitable work for the parish and for the community—we can heal those divisions. There are so many opportunities among the many ministries of Lumen Christi. Peruse the Ministries Handbook on the parish website (under "GET INVOLVED") for some inspiration.

As Pope Leo XIV said in his first message after being elected in May, "God loves us, all of us, evil will not prevail. We are all in the hands of God. Without fear, united, hand in hand with God and among ourselves, we will go forward. We are disciples of Christ, Christ goes before us, and the world needs his light. Humanity needs him like a bridge to reach God and his love. You help us to build bridges with dialogue and encounter so we can all be one people always in peace."

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

Defined by a monophonic (meaning a single melody without harmony or chords), unaccompanied song, Gregorian chant is a form of sacred music used in liturgical settings and prayer. It has been synonymous with Catholic musical worship since the first millennium. ©LPI

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC – BENEATH THE SURFACE

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

If we let Christ set fire to our lives, what would that fire burn away? What dead and festering undergrowth in our souls would be consumed by the flames? What promise of future holiness would sprout from beneath the ashes?
