WHAT IS CATHOLIC MORAL & SOCIAL TEACHING?

This section seeks to raise a greater awareness and understanding of the Church's deep moral and social doctrine.

Dignity of the Human Person

"Flesh" is the radical nakedness that, in Bethlehem as on Calvary, remains even without words – just as so many brothers and sisters, stripped of their dignity and reduced to silence, have no words today. Human flesh asks for care; it pleads for welcome and recognition; it seeks hands capable of tenderness and minds willing to listen; it longs for words of kindness.

Pope Leo XVI, Christmas homily, December 25, 2025

CARING FOR CAREGIVERS

This group provides loving and prayerful support for those who are caring for loved ones in need. Members share concerns and challenges, while receiving helpful information to provide the best care for their loved one. Meetings are every other Monday from 9:00-10:30 AM in the Chapel. If you would like to know more, please contact Susie Miller at (262) 751-9564 or skmiller1@icloud.com.

SAFEGUARDING ALL OF GOD'S FAMILY

All those who wish to volunteer with children in any capacity must attend a one-time safeguarding session. This includes hall monitors, chaperones for field trips or helpers in any programs. If you have any questions or wonder if you have taken this class in the past, please contact Karen Bersch at berschk@lumenchristiparish.org. Thank you for your help in safeguarding all of God's children.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA: JUST FOR FUN! ©LPi

Question: Who had a dream about Jesus during his trial and before his crucifixion?

Answer: The wife of Pontius Pilate.

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED!

“And what does the Lord require of you? Only this: to do what is right, to show mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.” (Micah 6:8)

But what does it mean to show true mercy?

God’s mercy to us knows no bounds, but that mercy does not compel Him to grant us everything our appetitive passions desire. God’s perfect mercy could never allow for something that would harm His children. A father whose child has a toothache cannot, out of mercy, give the child the candy he wants, no matter how the tears of the child grieve the father’s heart. The father can, and should, surround the child with love and sympathy, and help him to remedy the problem that lies at the heart of his grief. This is true virtuous mercy — a choice governed by reason, not merely an emotion. ©LPi

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

When God asks for Water

One of my earliest memories is of my mother weeping.

The last few months of her pregnancy with my little brother were tremendously painful for her, and more than once the pain brought her to tears. I have a hazy image of her in my mind, belly swollen with a 12-pound baby lying transverse in the womb, sitting on the edge of her bed, dabbing at her face with toilet paper.

I had brought her the toilet paper. I would do that when I saw her crying, to wipe away her tears. I have a hazy memory of that, too — of the way my heart was wrenched by the sight of her suffering, of my desperation to do something to help, and of my immense satisfaction when she would take the toilet paper, smile and say, “Oh, thank you, sweetheart!” as if I had just airlifted her out of a war zone.

What a powerful gift to give to a child still learning the meaning of compassion and selflessness — the gift of being able to feel that she has, even in some small way, “rescued” a person she worships. Her smile of gratitude lives, immortal, in my mind, along with the swell of satisfaction it produced in the deepest corner of my heart. This was when I learned that it feels good to help people, and this memory is a perpetually replenished well of living water for me. I draw from it daily, three decades later.

This is a gift that Christ gives, over and over again, in the Gospels. He allows us to encounter him tired, afraid, sad and hungry. Omnipotent power subjected to the utter vulnerability of human form.

Before the Incarnation, God looked down from Heaven and said, “You are thirsty. Here is something to drink.”

After the Incarnation, God sits down beside us and says, “I’m thirsty. Give me something to drink.” ©LPi

MENTAL HEALTH IN CATHOLIC FAMILY LIFE

Saturday, April 18 | 9 AM - 5 PM | Schoenstatt Retreat Center (Waukesha)

Schoenstatt Families invite Beth Hlabse from the McGrath Institute, University of Notre Dame, to address the topic of Mental Health in Catholic Family Life. Everyone is invited to the grace-filled grounds of the Marian Schoenstatt Shrine for a day of Cultivating Hope and Communion Under Mary's Mantle.

The presentation and Q&A will reflect on mental problems within marriage and family life overall: What is mental health? Why do we suffer? How do we heal? Insights from various authors, among them Father Joseph Kentenich, the founder of the Schoenstatt Movement, will also inspire the dialogue in the afternoon.
