EXPLORING OUR SPIRITUAL HOME

Every little detail in a Catholic church is intentional and Lumen Christi is no exception. In 2019, the church underwent an extensive renovation. It is easy to walk past these sacred details, so in this new series we're taking a closer look at our spiritual home.

Right: The red granite ossuary which holds the relics beneath the altar.

THE ALTAR

The table of the Lord, called the altar, should occupy a central location in the worship space and be fixed in place. The principal element of the Mass is the Eucharistic sacrifice of Christ offered on the altar. There the Last Supper of Jesus with his apostles is also remembered and shared. In the earliest days of Christianity, the sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated in private homes or near the tombs of martyred saints.

Our altar's square shape of the tabletop, follows the ancient design of church altars. A curved interlocking set of four marble arms supports it. The shape of these four supports suggests the orans posture of prayer assumed by the celebrant – arms held wide, palms up. Golden mosaic tiles as in the design of the baptismal font extend down from the tabletop to the floor.

THE RELICS

After the persecution of Christians throughout the Roman Empire ended, more elaborate altars were designed and used. At that time, in order to remember those loved ones who had died, the custom of depositing the relics of saints inside the altar began. A relic is a physical object that had a direct association with a saint or with Jesus Christ. There are three classes of relics:

- First-class: body or fragments of the body of a saint, such as pieces of bone or flesh.
- Second-class: item that a saint touched or owned, such as a shirt or book.
- Third-class: items that a saint has touched or items that have been touched to another relic.

We venerate the relics of saints as a way to honor the saint's inspiring way of life and bold faith. Beneath the altar rests a red granite ossuary, a depository for the relic remains of six saints: St. Philomena, St. John Vianney, St. Blaise, St. Jude, St. Francis of Assisi, and St. Teresa of Avila. The relics of St. Blaise and St. Jude were formerly in the St. James altar.

VIRTUES, EXPLAINED!

The virtue of forgiveness is described to us in detail by Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew, Chapter 18, when he tells Peter that he must forgive his brother “not seven times, but seventy-seven times” before relating the parable of the unforgiving servant. Here we see that exercising forgiveness is an absolute requirement of the Christian life. What we have received from God through no merit of our own, we must likewise extend to others.

Forgiveness is love in action — and as is the case with most virtues, if we find it hard to practice, that means we’re doing it right. The Catechism says that forgiveness “bears witness that...love is stronger than sin” (CCC 2844) and points out that it “is not in our power not to feel or to forget an offense; but the heart that offers itself to the Holy Spirit turns injury into compassion and purifies the memory in transforming the hurt into intercession.” (CCC 2843) ©LPi

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By: Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Gardener and the Soil

I began writing this piece by googling “how do you make soil fertile?” which should tell you everything you need to know about my own abilities as a gardener.

I remember seeing a packet of seeds in the store one summer as a child and convincing my mother to buy them. They were delphiniums, which bloom into a beautiful cone shape if you know what you’re doing. Alas, I didn’t. I chose for my garden a particularly dry spot of earth right next to my backyard playset, scattered the seeds, congratulated myself, and went on my merry way. I returned occasionally to water the area, but only when I remembered to.

Nothing grew, not even a little sprout. I was more than heartbroken — my faith was shaken. I had planted these seeds! I had watered them! (A little.) There was sunlight! All my childhood books and rhymes said this was all you needed. Was it all a lie?

Of course it wasn’t a lie. Seeds need soil, sunlight, water, and oxygen — good soil, adequate sunlight for whatever the plant is, and consistent water.

So what seeds need more than anything is a gardener. (At least, delphiniums do.)

When I hear the parable of the rich soil and the rocky ground in the Gospel of Matthew, I often miss the point. I think Jesus is trying to give me a message about how I should be. “Be better.” That’s what I think he’s telling me.

I forget that I am only the soil. I cannot enrich myself; all my efforts to do so will come to nothing. What he is telling me is to ask the gardener: “Make me what I need to be.”
