It's Angel Tree time!

If you know someone who could use some help with gifts this Christmas, please call Rita West 701-213-7275 or Julie Brorby at 701 740 2906. All names are confidential. We hope to have the tree up by Thanksgiving. If you take a name PLEASE REGISTER YOUR NAME ON THE LIST. We have had serious problems in the past trying to locate missing gifts and nothing is listed on the register. This often happens when children take the angel and don't write it down. God bless!

Book Study!

We are going to read Scott Hahn's book, "Hope to Die". It deals with the church teaching about the beauty of death, the afterlife, and why "hope drives out fear." We will meet on Sunday evenings, hopefully starting on Nov 15. We will wear masks and sit at Covid distances. Call or text Rita West if you are interested. 701-213-7275

The British Navy Welcomes the Devil

The Solemnity of Christ the King, which every Catholic throughout the entire world is celebrating today, is a new thing. The church has existed for 2000 years, but this Solemnity is less than 100 years old. It was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925. Pius XI wrote a document where the world was facing the aftermath of World War I. Everywhere he looked he saw the human society abandoning Christian values.

The main point of this encyclical was to remind Catholics that Christ matters not only for our private lives, but for our public lives too. That reminder is as valid today as it was in 1925. We are constantly bombarded by media messages that tell us to keep our religion safe at home and keep it out of the public square. But if we don't defend and spread Christian values in society, what values will thrive there?

If we don't continue to bring Christ into culture, what will culture become? You may remember a story that was in the news a couple of years ago. It told how the British Royal Navy officially recognized and approved of the practice of Satanism. A naval technician named Chris Cramer, who explicitly claimed to be a devil worshipper, was granted permission to perform satanic rituals on his ship. A Royal Navy spokesman explained that the Navy was "an equal opportunity employer and we don't stop anybody from having their own religious values." If we truly believe that Christ is the Savior, that there really is one God who created us and redeemed us, we should not be afraid to bring that faith to play in the society around us. If we don't bring it to play, others will bring into play other values and beliefs, and those may not be as innocent as we would like. All religions are not the same. All values systems are not the same. Today, the Church is reminding us of this, and encouraging us to be faithful followers of the one, true God, who so loved the world that he sent his Son to be our Savior by winning for us the forgiveness of sins through his death on the cross
