Thank you to all who shared in their bounty with their gift to help with the Christmas Flowers. Hopefully, the list will be in next weekends bulletin for the memorials/honor/ in memory of the intentions listed in the envelope.

Thank you to all who shared the Christmas season with me. Considering the restrain that we are all under with the virus and such, it was a joyful surprise to receive so many cards and financial gifts within. I would like to give a "shout-out" [thank you] to those who gave gift certificates, especially to LM Meats. These certificates were put to good use in helping those in need. Other gift certificates received were also put to good use. Thank you all for your kindness in helping me with your thoughts and prayers. Fr John

Consecration to St Joseph

One of the most prominent people in the life of Jesus Christ, St. Joseph, his foster father, is also one of the quietest. And as such, he can be one of the most overlooked people in the Bible and in the Holy Family. The word consecration technically means setting something aside for a holy purpose. We consecrate altars, for example, because we're going to use it for Mass. Or we consecrate people we have in religious communities and such. So when we consecrate ourselves to Mary or Joseph, we're basically entrusting ourselves to their spiritual care because they're our spiritual parents. Consecration to St. Joseph means that you acknowledge that he is your spiritual father, and you want to be like him. To show it, you entrust yourself entirely to his paternal care so that he can lovingly help you acquire his virtues and become holy...St. Joseph, in turn, will give those consecrated to him his loving attention, protection and guidance."

The first person to entrust themself to the spiritual care of Joseph and Mary was actually Jesus.
