Dear Fellow Travelers:

Many of you have come with me on a Republic of Ireland Pilgrimage. That seems to be the one that I have done for the past four visits, and we have seen many beautiful and wonderful things in the Republic. This Pilgrimage will be a little different, while we will still be visiting many of the places we have seen before and will have another opportunity to enjoy, we have included Northern Ireland and we will have the chance to see Belfast, the Giants Causeway, and other beautiful sites.

Some of the places we will be Belfast, Derry, Knock, Galway, Connemara, Killarney, King of Kerry, Blarney, and Dublin.

As before on our Pilgrimages we will have the opportunity to have Masses and be able to pray in many beautiful and historic Churches. We will travel through the Irish countryside and experience this truly wonderful country. And of course, we will experience the toe tapping Irish music, which is all around, and delicious Irish foods and beverages.

I know that this is a favorite Pilgrimage for many people. Many have asked that we go back to the Emerald Isle. So please consider joining all of us on this truly joyful experience. Please send in your registration forms and Deposit as soon as possible to assure of your reservation. As always, I and Fr. Danny are looking forward to being with you on this very special Pilgrimage to the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland.

Sincerely,
Fr. Carl J. & Fr. Danny G.
