STEWARDSHIP / CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Gratitude in Action: Our Way of Life / Gratitud en Acción: Nuestra forma de Vida

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." (Luke 10:27-28)

How often we hear these two great Commandments – love God and love neighbor. Have you ever tried to measure your love for God? Do you love Him to the fullest, to the very most of which you are capable? And your neighbor – how great is your love for this fellow human being?

Saint Claude La Colombière who was a French Jesuit priest and the spiritual director of Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque, spoke of his great need for and desire toward generosity when compared to the limitless mercy and love God had bestowed on him.

"First, God has loved me too well for me to spare myself henceforth in his service: . . .

Second, . . . what it is I can do for God's glory by employing myself entirely in his service, I am ashamed at the mere thought of depriving him of anything.

Third, there would be no safety for me in any half-measures: . . .

Fourth, only those who have given themselves to God unreservedly can expect to die calmly.

Fifth, they alone lead a peaceful and tranquil life.

Sixth, . . . one must be completely his. However little you keep back, you will be unfit to do great things for others.

Seventh, in this state one maintains a lively faith and a firm hope, one asks God confidently and one obtains infallibly." [Print bolded for clarity of separation]

The saints about whom we learn and read set the bar pretty high for the rest of us when loving neighbor. It can be difficult to measure our love of neighbor according to the example of love exhibited by Saint Teresa of Calcutta. We are instructed we cannot love God if we do not love our neighbor. "To love is to will the good of another." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, Second Edition, ¶1766)

Jesus came to call sinners – you and me. He offers mercy and forgiveness to each of us and asks that we do the same for others. "Go and do likewise." (Luke 10:37)

It is not ours to criticize, judge and condemn, but rather to recognize and truly see our neighbor, then reach out with mercy and love as we embrace that person in the humble, loving image of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

"Ama al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu corazón, con todo tu ser, con todas tus fuerzas y con toda tu mente, y ama a tu prójimo como a ti mismo" (Lucas 10: 27-28)

Cuántas veces escuchamos estos dos grandes Mandamientos: amar a Dios y amar al prójimo. ¿Alguna vez has tratado de medir tu amor por Dios? ¿Lo amas al máximo, al máximo de lo que eres capaz? Y a tu vecino, ¿qué tan grande es tu amor por este prójimo?

Santo Claude La Colombiere, quien era un sacerdote jesuita francés y director espiritual de Santa Margarita María Alacoque, habló de su gran necesidad y deseo de generosidad en comparación con la misericordia y el amor ilimitados que Dios le había otorgado.

"Primero, Dios me ha amado demasiado bien como para que me ahorre a partir de ahora en su servicio:....

Segundo,... ¿Qué es lo que puedo hacer para la gloria de Dios al dedicarme por completo a su servicio? Me avergüenzo de la mera idea de privarlo de cualquier cosa.

Tercero, no habría seguridad para mí en ninguna medida medida:....

Cuarto, solo aquellos que se han entregado a Dios sin reservas pueden esperar morir con calma.

Quinto, solo ellos llevan una vida pacífica y tranquila.

Sexto,... uno debe ser completamente suyo. Por poco que retengas, serás incapaz de hacer grandes cosas por los demás.

Séptimo, en este estado uno mantiene una fe viva y una esperanza firme, uno le pide a Dios con confianza y obtiene infaliblemente". [Imprimir en negro para mayor claridad de la separación]

Los santos sobre los que aprendemos y leemos nos imponen un nivel bastante alto al resto de nosotros cuando amamos al prójimo. Puede ser difícil medir nuestro amor al prójimo según el ejemplo del amor que muestra Santa Teresa de Calcuta. Se nos instruye que no podemos amar a Dios si no amamos a nuestro prójimo. "Amar es querer el bien de otro" (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, Segunda Edición, ¶1766)

Jesús vino a llamar a los pecadores, tú y yo. Él ofrece misericordia y perdón a cada uno de nosotros y nos pide que hagamos lo mismo por los demás. "Ve y haz lo mismo" (Lucas 10: 37)

No es nuestro el criticar, juzgar y condenar, sino reconocer y ver verdaderamente a nuestro prójimo, y luego alcanzar con misericordia y amor al abrazar a esa persona en la imagen humilde y amorosa de nuestro Señor y Salvador Jesucristo.

GOSPEL MEDITATION—ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO—ALENTAR ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Loving isn't too difficult, right? Many of us are surrounded by kind, lovely people trying to do the right thing. Indeed, to "love your neighbor as yourself" seems like it should be easy enough. Treat people like you would like to be treated. Bring the new neighbors some baked goods (normal and gluten-free, just in case). Chat with the bank teller about his holiday weekend. Write an occasional card to your sister "just because." There were probably varieties of these acts of kindness in Jesus' day. Perhaps substituting figs for cookies. But "exchange pleasantries with the traveling cloth merchant" isn't the example Jesus gives.

"A man fell victim to robbers... they stripped him and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead." The righteous pass by the scene of the dying man. The hero of the story is the one on the margins of Jewish society, who perhaps would not have been welcomed, in other circumstances, by the man now in the ditch. His neighborly love causes him to halt his journey, to tend wounds, and to pay for the man's care out of his own savings. Are we interruptible? Are we attentive to the hurts of others? Are we generous with our money and possessions?

In the past few weeks, who has crossed your mind as someone in need of help? Perhaps it's an acquaintance suffering from cancer. Maybe you were invited to donate or volunteer to a local social cause, but it just won't stick in your mind (or schedule) to make it happen. The needs of people are many and varied. We can't help everyone, but God does place opportunities in our path for compassion and courageous love. This week, be "the one who treated him with mercy."

15º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Después de la misión de los 72 discípulos, Jesús sigue su camino hacia Jerusalén, catequizando a los que deseaban seguirlo. En ese transcurso del camino surgieron dos preguntas fundamentales: "Un maestro de la Ley, que quería ponerlo aprueba, se levantó y le dijo: Maestro, ¿Qué debo hacer para conseguir la vida eterna"? (Lucas 10:25). La respuesta de Jesús es dada inmediatamente con otra pregunta: ¿Qué está escrito en la Escritura? ¿Qué lees en ella? Se da la respuesta: "Amarás al Señor tu Dios con todo tu corazón, con toda tu alma, con todas tus fuerzas y con toda tu mente; y amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo". (Lucas 10:27). Jesús le dijo entonces, "¡Excelente respuesta! Haz eso y vivirás. La lección para el maestro de la ley y para nosotros ahora es sencilla pero complicada ya que muchas veces solo falta una cosa: practicar con el ejemplo lo que indica la Escritura.

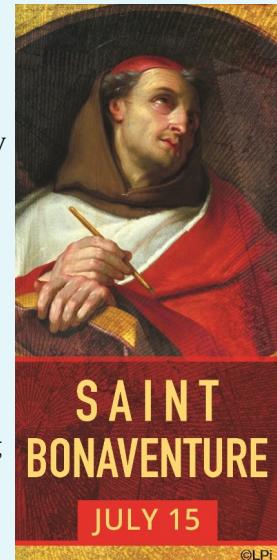

Surge luego la segunda pregunta por la misma persona, que en su ceguera espiritual en lugar de escuchar al Maestro lo retaba y le dijo: "¿Y quién es mi prójimo?". (Lucas 10:29). Jesús entonces narra la parábola del buen samaritano que en el fondo es un aprendizaje de que para Dios no existen diferentes clases de prójimos - Prójimo, es el que está cerca de mí, cada persona humana es toda persona próxima de cualquier raza, religión y condición en la que viva. En resumen, Jesús lanza la última pregunta: "Según tu parecer, ¿Cuál de estos tres fue el prójimo del hombre que cayó en manos de los salteadores?" La respuesta fue "El que se mostro compasivo con él." Y Jesús le dijo: "Vete y haz tú lo mismo". ¿Quién es mi prójimo en este 2019?

SEASONAL REFLECTION

Feast of Saint Bonaventure

Do you ever get stuck with the tough jobs? It's well known that the Franciscan Order was incredibly influential throughout history. But one of the most challenging times for a new movement is surviving the death of the founder. Bonaventure joined the Franciscan Order almost two decades after the passing of Saint Francis. Initially, the young man's theological insights earned him a prime faculty position at the University of Paris. More than his academic skill, however, he was known for his deep devotion to Christ. He was elected the General Minister of the Franciscan Order, right in the thick of controversies. Some friars had conflicting views of how to interpret Saint Francis' poverty as the order grew. Others started a new heresy, saying that the Franciscan Order began a new era of the Holy Spirit, replacing the era of Jesus and the authority of the Church. Saint Bonaventure weathered these crises with grace, restructuring the order when necessary and offering a more organized perspective on the insights of Saint Francis.

This Weekend—Mission Appeal

Father Benjamin Chinnappan, Mission Appeal Coordinator, has arranged for Father Mariappa Anthappa (Tony), a priest of 33 years in ministry in India to make a Mission Appeal on behalf of Bishop Neethinathan, Diocese of Chingleput, South India to support the education of poor children. Father Tony will speak at this weekend's Masses about the discrimination and injustice that the Indian Christians have been facing due to their faith in Jesus. He will be seeking your generous support to educate the Christian children who otherwise would end up as school drop-outs, child-laborers or victims of child-trafficking. You can make a huge difference in the lives of these children to have a good childhood and a decent future. The poor and the marginalized always live in hope – hope of ever becoming better when they will rise up as equal to other fellow human beings. This hope is realized through people like you.
