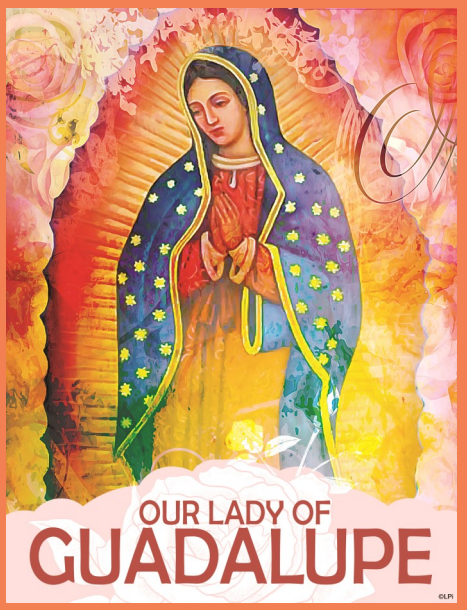
John Paul II's Prayer to Our Lady of Guadalupe

O Immaculate Virgin, Mother of the true God and Mother of the Church!, who from this place reveal your clemency and your pity to all those who ask for your protection, hear the prayer that we address to you with filial trust, and present it to your Son Jesus, our sole Redeemer.



Mother of Mercy, Teacher of hidden and silent sacrifice, to you, who come to meet us sinners, we dedicate on this day all our being and all our love. We also dedicate to you our life, our work, our joys, our infirmities and our sorrows. Grant peace, justice and prosperity to our peoples; for we entrust to your care all that we have and all that we are, our Lady and Mother. We wish to be entirely yours and to walk with you along the way of complete faithfulness to Jesus Christ in His Church; hold us always with your loving hand.

Virgin of Guadalupe, Mother of the Americas, we pray to you for all the Bishops, that they may lead the faithful along paths of intense Christian life, of love and humble service of God and souls. Contemplate this immense harvest, and intercede with the Lord that He may instill a hunger for holiness in the whole people of God, and grant abundant vocations of priests and religious, strong in the faith and zealous dispensers of God's mysteries.

Grant to our homes the grace of loving and respecting life in its beginnings, with the same love with which you conceived in your womb the life of the Son of God. Blessed Virgin Mary, protect our families, so that they may always be united, and bless the upbringing of our children.

Our hope, look upon us with compassion, teach us to go continually to Jesus and, if we fall, help us to rise again, to return to Him, by means of the confession of our faults and sins in the Sacrament of Penance, which gives peace to the soul.

We beg you to grant us a great love for all the holy Sacraments, which are, as it were, the signs that your Son left us on earth. Thus, Most Holy Mother, with the peace of God in our conscience, with our hearts free from evil and hatred, we will be able to bring to all true joy and true peace, which come to us from your son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who with God the Father and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP / CORRESPONSABILIDAD

Gratitude in Action: Our Way of Life / Gratitud en Acción: Nuestra forma de Vida

"He must increase; I must decrease." John 3:30

Our life is not about ourselves. It is about Jesus living within us, and His presence reflected in us. What we say and do, how we pray and share our faith, how we treat our neighbor, all speak of our beliefs and faith in the God who created us. That may seem most difficult to say and believe; it may be even more difficult to live.

Stewards know who we are and who we may become, all we have or may receive, everything, belongs to God. We, as stewards, tend and care for everything, including our very selves, in a manner pleasing to God our Father, reflecting respect for all He has given us.

We may believe our bodies belong to us, doing as we please with them, "caring" for them however we choose.

We may believe our minds also are ours with little effort to keep them clean and free of hurtful or evil thoughts and desires.

We may believe our spirits, too, need no nourishing or cleansing. We are entitled to feel however we choose in light of the disharmony within us.

In reality, our bodies belong to God. We are the Lord's temple; He dwells in each of us. It is our responsibility to keep "His dwelling clean".

Our minds should be focused on God and His Will for each of us, seeking each day to offer prayer and praise to His Holy Name.

Our spirits, too, must be in communion with our Lord. Depression, anxiety, boredom, displeasure, the list can be extensive. We give ourselves to prayer, lifting our hearts and our minds to the Lord, seeking forgiveness and mercy that we might be healed.

Bishop Robert Barron, in a recent reflection, identified the scripture in which Jesus entered the temple and drove out those who were selling things. They were desecrating a holy place. Keeping this in mind and recalling that our own bodies, too, are temples in which our Lord dwells, Jesus seeks to cleanse us of that which may be within us and defiling the sacredness of His dwelling place.

Bishop Barron concludes his reflection by saying: "You—your life, your body, your self—are meant to be a temple where God is praised. Every aspect of your life is meant to be turned to the Lord, dedicated to him."

"Lord, You must increase and I must decrease. Please come and take complete possession of my soul. Transform my mind and heart, guide my will, emotions and desires. And allow me to become a holy instrument of Your divine life. Jesus, I trust in You." (Catholic Daily Reflections, January 11, 2020)

"Él debe aumentar; Debo disminuir". Juan 3:30

Nuestra vida no se trata de nosotros mismos. Se trata de Jesús viviendo dentro de nosotros y Su presencia reflejada en nosotros. Lo que decimos y hacemos, cómo oramos y compartimos nuestra fe, cómo tratamos a nuestro prójimo, todo habla de nuestras creencias y fe en el Dios que nos creó. Eso puede parecer muy difícil de decir y creer; puede ser incluso más difícil vivir.

Los corresponsables saben quiénes somos y quiénes podemos llegar a ser, todo lo que tenemos o podemos recibir, todo le pertenece a Dios. Nosotros, como corresponsables, cuidamos y vigilamos de todo, incluso de nosotros mismos, de una manera que agrade a Dios nuestro Padre, reflejando respeto por todo lo que Él nos ha dado.

Podemos creer que nuestros cuerpos nos pertenecen, haciendo lo que nos plazca con ellos, "cuidándolos" como queramos.

Podemos creer que nuestras mentes también son nuestras con poco esfuerzo para mantenerlas limpias y libres de pensamientos y deseos dañinos o malvados. También podemos creer que nuestro espíritu no necesita ser nutrido ni purificado. Tenemos derecho a sentir como elijamos a la luz de la falta de armonía dentro de nosotros.

En realidad, nuestros cuerpos pertenecen a Dios. Somos el templo del Señor; Él habita en cada uno de nosotros. Es nuestra responsabilidad mantener "limpia su morada".

Nuestras mentes deben estar enfocadas en Dios y Su Voluntad para cada uno de nosotros, buscando cada día ofrecer oración y alabanza a Su Santo Nombre. También nuestros espíritus deben estar en comunión con nuestro Señor. Depresión, ansiedad, aburrimiento, disgusto, la lista puede ser extensa. Nos entregamos a la oración, elevando nuestro corazón y nuestra mente al Señor, buscando el perdón y la misericordia para que podamos ser sanados.

El obispo Robert Barron, en una reflexión reciente, identificó la escritura en la que Jesús entró al templo y expulsó a los que vendían cosas. Profanaban un lugar santo. Teniendo esto en cuenta y recordando que nuestros propios cuerpos también son templos en los que mora nuestro Señor, Jesús busca limpiarnos de lo que pueda estar dentro de nosotros y profanar el carácter sagrado de Su morada.

El obispo Barron concluye su reflexión diciendo: "Usted, su vida, su cuerpo, usted mismo, está destinado a ser un templo donde se alaba a Dios. Cada aspecto de tu vida está destinado a ser vuelto al Señor, dedicado a él ".

Pastor's Message / Mensaje del padre: Father David Bittmenn

The Bridge Over the River Kwai was a movie released in 1957. It tells the story of a group of allied prisoners of war held by the Japanese in World War II. When the Japanese commander orders allied officers and enlisted men to build a bridge over the River Kwai, the allied commander objects. He notes that by international treaty officers cannot be forced to build bridges. For his steadfastness and inflexibility, the allied commander is and his officers are punished mightily. After some time passes, the Japanese commander relents. When the allied commander looks at the sorry state of the bridge his men were constructing, he is shocked. Either because of his inflexible personality, the punishment he endured, or both things combined, the allied commander is now worried about the poor morale of his men and their vanishing sense of professionalism. He orders some of his officers to design a proper bridge and he pushes his men to do a proper and timely job. Eventually he realizes what he has done and destroys the bridge after its completion.

For almost as long as it has been around humanity has struggled to build a place where righteousness dwells. Recall the story of the Tower of Babel in Genesis 11. But for one reason or another the human race ends up sabotaging itself. Its work is like the work of the allies on the bridge over the River Kwai; both managed to end up doing the opposite of what they set out to do despite promising beginnings.

This story plays itself out to one degree or another in the lives of the Faithful. We start out well, run into problems, and realize that we are in over our heads and are actually working against ourselves. Others may offer advice as to how to get out of this dilemma, but we will likely have to stumble through ourselves until we are out of the trap. There's no teacher like experience. And so we hear in this weekend's second reading: "The Lord does not delay his promise, as some regard 'delay,' but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance." Each time we turn back or repent, we are able to start out again with more understanding of righteousness and how we can bring it about. In this way we find ourselves addressed by another part of the second reading, a part telling us what sort of persons we should be, "conducting [ourselves] in holiness and devotion, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God…."

El Puente Sobre el Río Kwai fue una película estrenada en 1957. Cuenta la historia de un grupo de prisioneros de guerra aliados en poder de los japoneses en la Segunda Guerra Mundial. Cuando el comandante japonés ordena a los oficiales aliados y hombres alistados que construyan un puente sobre el río Kwai, el comandante aliado se opone. Señala que los agentes de tratados internacionales no pueden ser obligados a construir puentes. Por su firmeza e inflexibilidad, el comandante aliado es, y sus oficiales son castigados poderosamente. Después de que pasa un tiempo, el comandante japonés cede. Cuando el comandante aliado observa el lamentable estado del puente que sus hombres estaban construyendo, se sorprende. Ya sea por su personalidad inflexible, el castigo que soportó, o ambas cosas combinadas, el comandante aliado ahora está preocupado por la mala moral de sus hombres y su desvanecimiento del sentido de profesionalismo. Ordena a algunos de sus oficiales que diseñen un puente adecuado y empuja a sus hombres a hacer un trabajo adecuado y oportuno. Finalmente, se da cuenta de lo que ha hecho y destruye el puente una vez completado.

Durante casi todo el tiempo que ha existido, la humanidad ha luchado por construir un lugar donde more la justicia. Recuerde la historia de la Torre de Babel en Génesis 11. Pero por una razón u otra la raza humana termina saboteándose a sí misma. Su trabajo es como el trabajo de los aliados en el puente sobre el río Kwai; ambos lograron terminar haciendo lo contrario de lo que se propusieron a pesar de sus prometedores comienzos.

Esta historia se desarrolla en un grado u otro en la vida de los fieles. Comenzamos bien, nos encontramos con problemas y nos damos cuenta de que estamos por encima de nuestras cabezas y que en realidad estamos trabajando contra nosotros mismos. Otros pueden ofrecer consejos sobre cómo salir de este dilema, pero es probable que tengamos que tropezar con nosotros mismos hasta que salgamos de la trampa. No hay maestra como experiencia. Y así escuchamos en la segunda lectura de este fin de semana: "El Señor no demora su promesa, ya que algunos consideran 'demora', pero es paciente con ustedes, no deseando que nadie perezca, sino que todos lleguen al arrepentimiento". Cada vez que nos volvemos atrás o nos arrepentimos, podemos empezar de nuevo con una mayor comprensión de la justicia y cómo podemos lograrla. De esta manera nos encontramos abordados por otra parte de la segunda lectura, una parte que nos dice qué tipo de personas debemos ser, "conduciéndonos [nosotros] en santidad y devoción, esperando y apresurando la llegada del día de Dios…. "

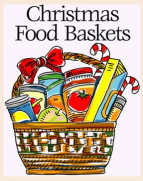
Our Mother's Food Pantry ministry will be giving out Christmas food baskets with gift cards again this year. Last year, we gave out over 100 baskets.

Food donations can be put into the Knights' food wagons in the Church vestibule.

We would appreciate donations of flour tortillas and bags of beans and rice as well as the normal items for a Christmas meal. Cash donations should be deposited in the collection baskets at weekend Masses and marked as a Christmas basket donation.

The Parish food pantry is open on Thursdays from 9:00 am to 11:30 am. Requests must be made by December 10.

The food baskets will be distributed on Thursday, December 17, 10 am - 5 pm in Kuzy Hall.



God bless you for your generosity!

Coats For the Children

San Pablo Mission - Beryl Junction

Once again this Christmas the Knights of Columbus are asking for your help to purchase winter coats for the children of the San Pablo Mission in Beryl Junction.

Last year 58 coats were purchased and given to the children by the fundraising efforts of the Knights and the Saint George Catholic Women's Group. We intend to provide as many coats as requested again this year, but due to the Covid restrictions, fundraising has been significantly reduced.

We have scheduled two weekends for collecting donations, December 5th and 6th - December 12th and 13th. The Knights and the Women's Group will be at the Church doors before and after the Masses.

We are not able to provide toys and other items due to the Covid virus. We hope to resume providing these gifts again next year.

If you have any questions, please call Ron Cacualli at 607-752-0860.

This weekend's second collection benefits the Saint George Catholic Church Renovation Projects

If you have Building Fund envelopes, you may use them for this collection. You may also contribute to the Renovation Projects fund through our online giving.

Nuestro ministerio de Despensa de Alimentos estará entregando canastas de alimentos navideños con tarjetas de regalo nuevamente este año. El año pasado repartimos más de 100 canastas.

Las donaciones de alimentos se pueden depositar en los vagones de comida de los Caballeros de Colón en el vestíbulo de la Iglesia a partir del 14 de noviembre.

Agradeceríamos donaciones de tortillas de harina y bolsas de frijoles y arroz, así como los artículos normales para una comida navideña. Las donaciones en efectivo deben depositarse en las canastas de colecta en las Misas de fin de semana y marcarse como una donación de canasta de Navidad.

La despensa de alimentos de la parroquia está abierta los jueves de 9:00 am a 11:30 am. Las solicitudes deben hacerse antes del 10 de diciembre.

Las canastas de alimentos se distribuirán el jueves 17 de diciembre en Kuzy Hall.

¡Dios te bendiga por tu generosidad!

Christmas Giving Tree

Since we now have COVID-19 to contend with, instead of having a "Christmas Giving Tree" we ask those, who in the past, were so very generous in providing gifts for the children of the Parish, to contribute money so we can purchase gift cards instead. We realize this takes the fun out of shopping, and maybe frustration in looking for the ideal gifts, but since we have to be careful about spreading the virus, this may be a good alternative.

Therefore, if you would like to participate, we ask that you put your donation in a labeled envelope and put in the collection basket, mail it to the office or drop it in a box at the entry of the church no later than Monday the 14th of December.

Gift cards will be distributed on Thursday the 17th, in Kuzy Hall from 8 am - 5 pm.
